 28 CLARK COUNTY, a political subdivision of

Case No.: 2:24-cv-00334-JAD-NJK

DECLARATION OF ATTORNEY
 MARGARET A. MCLETCHE IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO COMPEL
 AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS
 AND CERTIFICATION OF GOOD FAITH MEET AND CONFER EFFORTS

Margaret A. McLetchie, attorney for Plaintiffs, hereby declares that the following is true and correct under the penalty of perjury:

1. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein, except where stated upon information and belief, and where so stated. I believe them to be true.
2. I am over the age of eighteen years and am mentally competent.
3. I am a Partner/Owner at the law firm of McLetchie Law, LLC, and am one

1 of the attorneys for the Plaintiffs in McAllister, et al. v. Clark County., U.S. Dist. Ct. Case
2 No. 2:24-cv-00334-JAD-NJK.

3 4. I am making this declaration in support of Plaintiffs' Motion to Compel and 4 Motion for Sanctions.

5 5. I am also making this declaration to authenticate exhibits filed in support of 6 Plaintiffs' Motion to Compel which are identified in Plaintiffs' Appendix of Exhibits filed 7 concurrently herewith.

8 6. On September 25, 2024, Plaintiffs issued their First Request for Production
9 of Documents to Defendant Clark County; Plaintiffs served Defendant via electronic mail
10 and by U.S. mail on the same day. (A true and correct copy is attached as Exhibit 1.)

11 7. On October 4, 2024, Plaintiffs issued their First Request Set of 12 Interrogatories to Defendant Clark County; Plaintiffs served Defendant via electronic mail

14 8. On October 17, 2024, Deputy District Attorney Joel K. Browning, counsel
15 for Defendant Clark County, sent an email to Plaintiffs' counsel requesting a two-week
16 extension of time to serve the County's responses to Plaintiffs' Requests for Production and 17 Interrogatories. Mr. Peterson responded and agreed to the requested extension of time, until 18 November 8, 2024.

19 9. On November 6, 2024, the County's counsel, Mr. Browning, sent an email
20 to Plaintiff's counsel requesting an additional two-week extension of time to serve the 21 County's responses to Plaintiffs' Requests for Production and Interrogatories. On November 22 7, 2024, Chris Peterson, also counsel for Plaintiffs, responded to the email noting his 23 concerns about the requested extension in light of impending deadlines. Later that day, Mr.
24 Browning modified his request to seeking a one-week extension. Mr. Peterson responded the 25 same day and indicated that he agreed to an extension of time until November 14, 2024.

26 10. On November 14, 2024, Defendant Clark County's served its First 27 Supplemental Disclosure and Production of Documents Per FRCP 26(a)(1). (A true and 28 correct copy is attached as Exhibit 3, without its accompanying documents being disclosed.)

1           11. On November 14, 2024, Defendant Clark County also served their
2 Responses to Plaintiffs' First Request for Production of Documents. (A true and correct copy
3 is attached as Exhibit 4.)

4           12. On November 14, 2024, Defendant Clark County also served their Answers
5 to Plaintiffs' First Set of Interrogatories. (A true and correct copy is attached as Exhibit 5.)

6           13. On December 9, 2024, Plaintiff's counsel Mr. Peterson sent an email to 7 Defendant's counsel Mr. Browning requesting to meet and confer to attempt to resolve
8 discovery disputes concerning the County's responses to written discovery. (A true and 9 correct copy is attached as Exhibit 6.)

10           14. On December 17, 2024, Defendant Clark County served their Second 11 Supplemental Disclosure and Production of Documents Per FRCP 26(a)(1). (A true and 12 correct copy is attached as Exhibit 7, without its accompanying documents being disclosed.)

13           15. On December 18, 2024, Defendant's counsel Mr. Browning sent Plaintiffs 14 a letter responding to the December 17, 2024, email and addressing Plaintiffs' concerns
15 concerning the County's responses to Plaintiffs' written discovery. (A true and correct copy

17           16. On December 19, 2024, Mr. Peterson, Jacob Smith, Tatiana Smith, and I
18 (all counsel for Plaintiffs) participated in a teleconference with Defendant's counsel Mr.
19 Browning and Timothy Allen from the Clark County District Attorney's Office, in order to 20 carry out a good faith effort resolve the discovery disputes concerning the County's 21 responses to Plaintiffs' written discovery. The parties were able to resolve some of the 22 disputed issues, but the majority of issues remain unresolved.

23           17. Specifically, as to Requests for Production Nos. 1-17, the County agreed to 24 follow up with the Clark County District Attorney's Office's Criminal Division to determine
25 if that agency had responsive documents. The County also agreed to review its Interrogatory
26 responses to determine whether it could or would clarify why the citations it had provided 27 were responsive. The County later stated that it would not provide the latter clarification, and 28 did eventually provide certain documents responsive to Request Nos. 1-17. All other issues

1 raised in Plaintiffs' December 9, 2024, email remained unresolved.

2 18. Additionally, the County took the position that many of Plaintiffs' requests
3 for production were overbroad and indicated that Plaintiffs would have to file a motion to 4 compel, and that should the Court disagree with the County's positions on the disputed
5 discovery, the County could then produce and rely on information not previously produced.
6 The County also stated that it had not carried out any of the searches requested in Plaintiffs'
7 Requests for Production.

8 19. Plaintiffs' counsel offered to work together to narrow custodians and to craft
9 electronic discovery searches; Plaintiffs' counsel also offered to discuss potential limits on 10 specific requests for production. The County's counsel stated that such a discussion would 11 be premature considering the County's position regarding what information would be 12 relevant to the Plaintiffs claims, specifically that only the ordinance's language, the 13 legislative history, and the public record is relevant, and the Court would need to determine 14 that other information would be relevant the Plaintiffs' claims before the County would 15 discuss limiting the Plaintiff's requests for production. The County thus refused to work
16 together on these proposed searches unless and until the Court granted Plaintiffs' planned
17 motion to compel. Plaintiffs disagreed that this was a permissible approach.

18 20. On December 24, 2024, Mr. Peterson sent Defendant's counsel a letter 19 memorializing the matters that were discussed during the December 19, 2024, meet and 20 confer conference. The letter describes in detail the issues that were discussed, the issues that 21 were resolved, and the issues that remain unresolved. (A true and correct copy is attached 22 as Exhibit 9.) Defendant Clark County has not disputed the contents of the December 24, 23 2024, letter.

24 21. On January 9, 2025, Defendant Clark County served their Responses to 25 Plaintiffs' First Supplemental Responses to Plaintiffs' First Request for Production of 26 Documents. (A true and correct copy is attached as Exhibit 10.)

27 22. On January 16, 2024, Defendant Clark County served their Fifth
28 Supplemental Disclosure and Production of Documents Per FRCP 26(a)(1). (A true and

1 correct copy is attached as Exhibit 11, without the accompanying documents being 2 disclosed.)

3 23. Attached hereto as Exhibit 12 is a true and correct copy of Clark County
4 Code Chapter 16.13. (Downloaded January 15, 2025, from
5 https://library.municode.com/nv/clark\_county/codes/code\_of\_ordinances?nodeId=TIT16R
6 OHI\_CH16.13PEFLZO).

7 24. Attached hereto as Exhibit 13 is a true and correct copy of the Agreement
8 Between Clark County and Dr. Sousa for Public Safety and Disorder Analysis on Pedestrian 9 Overpasses (Bates No. CC 1397-1404), produced in Clark County’s disclosures.

10 25. As set forth above, the parties have made a good faith effort to meet and 11 confer as defined in LR IA 1-3(f) before the filing of the instant motion, as summarized in 12 detail in Exhibit 9.

14 Pursuant to NRS 53.045, I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the 15 State of Nevada that the foregoing is true and correct.

1 Procedure and the Local Rules of this Court, hereby requests that DEFENDANT Clark County
2 (“DEFENDANT”), produce for inspection and copying the DOCUMENTS, data, information, and
3 THINGS described herein, within 30 days. Each of the following DOCUMENT requests (each, a 4 “Request”) is to be read in accordance with the definitions and respective instructions that follow.

5 DEFINITIONS

6 Notwithstanding ANY definition set forth below, each word, term, or phrase used in the 7 Requests is intended to have the broadest meaning permitted under the Federal Rules of Civil 8 Procedure.

9 1. “ANY” and “ALL” may be used interchangeably herein and mean “ANY,” “ALL,” 10 “each and every,” as well as “anyone.”

11 2. “COMMUNICATION” and “COMMUNICATIONS” means ANY transmission, 12 conveyance, or exchange of information, whether by oral, written, printed, recorded, filmed,
13 electronic, or other means, including, but not limited to, discussions, conversations, interviews, 14 negotiations, e-mails, facsimile transmissions, letters, confirmations, telephonic conversations,

16 however transmitted.

17 3. “COMPLAINT” means the controlling complaint filed by PLAINTIFFS, and 18 served upon DEFENDANT, in the United States District Court for the District of Nevada, Case

14 of ANY DOCUMENT request DOCUMENTS that might otherwise be construed to be outside the 15 scope, (a) the connectors "and" and "or" shall be construed both conjunctively and disjunctively,

19 RESPONSE:

19 contracts, payments, drafts, or requests for information related to the report.

20 RESPONSE:

21 Objection. The instant request for “ALL DOCUMENTS” is overly broad and unduly
22 burdensome. The instant Request is also premature. All expert disclosures will be made in
23 accordance with Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(a)(2)(D). The instant request is further objectionable as Dr.
24 William Sousa was retained in anticipation of the subject litigation and to serve as Defendant
25 Clark County’s testifying expert witness in the same. Accordingly, many of the documents
26 related to Dr. Sousa’s report are protected as qualified attorney work product. See Fed.R.Civ.P.
27 26(b)(4)(C). Furthermore, as communications and documents exchanged between Dr. Sousa
28 and Clark County and its counsel were made to assist Clark County Commissioners and their

1 staff in making legislative recommendations and decisions and the disclosure of such
2 communications would discourage candid discussions within the County and undermine the
3 County's ability to legislate, they are also protected from disclosure under deliberative process
4 and legislative privileges. Transgender L. Ctr. v. Immigr. & Customs Enf't, 46 F.4th 771, 783
5 (9th Cir. 2022). Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant
6 answers as follows:

7           See William H. Sousa Invoices and Agreement between Clark County and Dr. Sousa
8 for Public Safety and Disorder Analysis on Pedestrian Overpasses, disclosed as bates CC 1390
9 to CC 1396 and bates CC 1394 to CC 1404, respectively, in Defendant Clark County's First

25 REQUEST NO. 19:

26           ALL COMMUNICATIONS to or from Dr. William Sousa.

28 ///

1 RESPONSE:

2           Objection. The instant Request is premature. All expert disclosures will be made in
3 accordance with Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(a)(2)(D). The instant request is further objectionable as Dr.
4 William Sousa was retained in anticipation of the subject litigation and to serve as Defendant
5 Clark County's testifying expert witness in the same. All communications between Dr. Sousa
6 and Defendant Clark County or its counsel, not subject to one of the identified exceptions, are
7 protected as qualified attorney work product. See Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(b)(4)(C). Furthermore, as
8 communications between Dr. Sousa and Clark County and its counsel were made to assist
9 Clark County Commissioners and its staff in making legislative decisions and the disclosure
10 of such communications would discourage candid discussions within the County and 11 undermine the County's ability to legislate, they are also protected from disclosure under 12 deliberative process and legislative privileges. Transgender L. Ctr. v. Immigr. & Customs
13 Enft, 46 F.4th 771, 783 (9th Cir. 2022). Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject
14 to the same, Defendant answers as follows:

15           See redacted e-mail communications between Clark County and Dr. William Sousa and 16 the associated privilege log, disclosed in Defendant's First Supplemental Disclosures as bates

19 Pedestrian Overpasses, disclosed as CC 1394 to CC 1404 in DEFENDANT CLARK
20 COUNTY'S FIRST SUPPLEMENTAL DISCLOSURE AND PRODUCTION OF
21 DOCUMENTS PER FRCP 26(a)(1)

22           Discovery is ongoing and Defendant Clark County reserves the right to disclose
23 additional information as it becomes available in the course of discovery.

6 assertions and/or documents that are equally available to both parties. Defendant further
7 objects to the extent the instant Request calls for a legal conclusion. Without waiving the 8 foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant answers as follows:

15 Ultimately these legal assertions by counsel, which constitute questions of law, will be 16 determined by the Court just as Plaintiffs’ assertions to the contrary will and are not 17 appropriate avenues of inquiry in written discovery. The instant Request is overly broad and 18 unduly burdensome. The instant Request is further objectionable as it seeks documents that 19 are equally available to both parties. Defendant further objects to the extent the instant Request
20 calls for a legal conclusion. Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same,
21 Defendant answers as follows:

22 REQUEST NO. 47:

23 ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO the claim that 24 PEDESTRIAN BRIDGES were designed only for “incidental and fleeting view[s] of the Las 25 Vegas Strip,” as stated in Clark County Code § 16.13.010.

26 RESPONSE:

27 Objection. The instant Request is overly broad and unduly burdensome—particularly
28 as it pertains to Plaintiffs’ request for “ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS [...]

1 RELATED TO” without the provisions of meaningful time restrictions, search terms or user
2 accounts. Even if the subject Request were not overly broad the Request is further
3 objectionable because it impermissibly seeks to ascertain legislators’ subjective motives or 4 opinions and their communications with staff protected under the deliberative process and
5 legislative privileges in First Amendment challenges such is the instant case. See, e.g., City of
6 Las Vegas v. Foley, 747 F.2d 1294, 1298 (9th Cir. 1984). The instant Request is objectionable
7 to the extent it calls for documents protected under the work product privilege or attorney
8 client privilege. The instant Request further calls for a legal conclusion. Without waiving the 9 foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant responds as follows:

10 REQUEST NO. 48:

11 ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO the claim that Clark
12 County Code § 16.13.030 allows for “brief or insubstantial variations in movement” on the 13 PEDESTRIAN BRIDGES, as stated in DEFENDANT Clark County’s Motion to Dismiss
14 Plaintiff’s Complaint, ECF No. 9, 15:22.

15 RESPONSE:

16 Objection. The instant Request is overly broad and unduly burdensome—particularly
17 as it pertains to Plaintiffs’ request for “ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS
18 RELATED TO” without the provisions of meaningful time restrictions, search terms or user
19 accounts. The instant Request calls for a legal conclusion based on an argument put forth in 20 response to a motion already resolved by the Court. Notably, brief or insubstantial variations 21 in movement do not constitute stopping or standing. Ultimately these legal assertions by 22 counsel, which constitute questions of law, will be determined by the Court just as Plaintiffs’
23 assertions to the contrary will and they are not appropriate points of inquiry for discovery.
24 Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant answers as 25 follows:

12 as stated in DEFENDANT Clark County’s Motion to Dismiss Plaintiff’s Complaint, ECF No.
13 9, 15:2–3.

14 RESPONSE:

15 Objection. The instant Request is overly broad and unduly burdensome—particularly
16 as it pertains to Plaintiffs’ request for “ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS
17 RELATED TO” without the provisions of meaningful time restrictions, search terms or user

7 REQUEST NO. 50:

8 ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO the definition of 9 “disorderly offenses” as used in Clark County Code § 16.13.010.

10 RESPONSE:

11 Objection. The instant Request is overly broad and unduly burdensome—particularly
12 as it pertains to Plaintiffs’ request for “ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS
13 RELATED TO” without the provisions of meaningful time restrictions, search terms or user
14 accounts. Even if the subject Request were not overly broad the Request is further
15 objectionable because it impermissibly seeks to ascertain legislators’ subjective motives or

21 foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant responds as follows:

22 REQUEST NO. 51:

23 ALL TRAININGS RELATED TO the implementation and enforcement of Clark
24 County Code § 16.13.030.

25 RESPONSE:

26 Objection. The instant request is vague and ambiguous, particularly as it pertains to the 27 terms “trainings,” “implementation,” and “enforcement.” Defendant further objects that it is 28 not the entity responsible for the enforcement of Clark County Code § 16.13.030. The instant

1 request is further objectionable as it is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of
2 admissible evidence. Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same,
3 Defendant responds as follows:

4 To the extent the ordinance may be considered a training, see the text of Chapter 16.13
5 to the Clark County Code, disclosed in Defendant Clark County’s Initial Disclosures as bates
6 CC 140 to CC 145.

12 RESPONSE:

13 Objection. The instant request is vague and ambiguous, particularly as it pertains to the 14 terms “policies,” “implementation,” and “enforcement.” Defendant further objects that it is
15 not the entity responsible for the enforcement of Clark County Code § 16.13.030. The instant
16 request is further objectionable as it is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of 17 admissible evidence. Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same,
18 Defendant responds as follows:

2           Objection. The instant Request is overly broad and unduly burdensome—particularly
3 as it pertains to Plaintiffs’ request for “ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS
4 RELATED TO” without the provisions of meaningful time restrictions, search terms or user
5 accounts. The instant Request is further objectionable as it is vague and ambiguous as to time
6 and the phrase “written public comment.” Without waiving the foregoing objection and subject
7 to the same, Defendant responds as follows:

8           See Letter dated December 4, 2023, from Nevada Resort Association to the Board of
9 County Commissioners, disclosed as bates CC 127 to CC 131 in DEFENDANT CLARK

23 REQUEST NO. 54:

24           ALL DOCUMENTS RELATED TO Bill No. 4-19-22-1, first introduced at the April 25 19, 2022, Clark County Commission meeting.

26 RESPONSE:

27           Objection. The instant Request is overly broad and unduly burdensome—particularly 28 as it pertains to Plaintiffs’ request for “ALL DOCUMENTS RELATED TO.” Even if the

1 subject Request were not overly broad the Request is further objectionable because it
2 impermissibly seeks to ascertain legislators’ subjective motives or opinions and their
3 communications with staff protected under the deliberative process and legislative privileges
4 in First Amendment challenges such is the instant case. See, e.g., City of Las Vegas v. Foley,
5 747 F.2d 1294, 1298 (9th Cir. 1984). The instant Request is objectionable to the extent it calls
6 for documents protected under the work product privilege or attorney client privilege. The
7 instant Request is not relevant nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible
8 evidence. Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant
9 Responds as follows:

10       See Certified copy of documentation regarding Board of County Commissioners
11 Meeting, April 19, 2022, item number 59, disclosed as bates CC 1419 to CC 1427; Certified

13 number 65 including video, disclosed as bates CC 1428 to CC 1437; and Certified copy of 14 documentation regarding Board of County Commissioners Meeting, June 21, 2022 item
15 number 76, disclosed as bates CC 1438 to CC 1446.

16       Discovery is ongoing and Defendant reserves the right to supplement its response to
17 the instant request as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

18 REQUEST NO. 55:

19       ALL e-mails and ANY other COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO Bill No. 4-19-22-
20 1, first introduced at the April 19, 2022, Clark County Commission meeting.

21 RESPONSE:

22       The instant Request is overly broad and unduly burdensome—particularly as it pertains
23 to Plaintiffs’ request for “ALL e-mails and ANY other COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO 24 Bill No. 4-19-22-1” without the provisions of meaningful time restrictions, search terms or
25 user accounts. Even if the subject Request were not overly broad the Request is further
26 objectionable because it impermissibly seeks to ascertain legislators’ subjective motives or
27 opinions and their communications with staff protected from disclosure under the deliberative
28 process and legislative privileges in First Amendment challenges such is the instant case. See,

1 e.g., City of Las Vegas v. Foley, 747 F.2d 1294, 1298 (9th Cir. 1984). The instant Request is
2 objectionable as it is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.
3 Communications regarding a completely different proposed ordinance from 2022 are both
4 protected by deliberative process privilege and have no bearing on a determination of the 5 constitutionality of a separate ordinance passed in 2024 which will be determined on the 6 language of the ordinance, the legislative history, and the public comment by any legislators.
7 The instant Request is further objectionable to the extent it calls for documents protected under
8 the work product privilege or attorney client privilege. The instant Request is also not 9 proportional to the needs of the case. Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to 10 the same, Defendant Responds as follows:

11 Defendant declines to respond to the instant Request as the requested communications
12 are privileged and irrelevant and the work required to perform an undefined search of this
13 nature is disproportionate to the needs of the case.

14 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant reserves the right to supplement its response to
15 the instant request as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

16 REQUEST NO. 56:

17 ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO written public
18 comment submitted to DEFENDANT referencing Bill No. 4-19-22-1, first introduced at the 19 April 19, 2022, Clark County Commission meeting.

20 RESPONSE:

21 The instant Request is overly broad and unduly burdensome—particularly as it pertains
22 to Plaintiffs’ request for “ALL e-mails and ANY other COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO 23 Bill No. 4-19-22-1” without the provisions of meaningful time restrictions, search terms or
24 user accounts. Even if the subject Request were not overly broad the Request is further
25 objectionable because it impermissibly seeks to ascertain legislators’ subjective motives or

17 the instant request as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

18 REQUEST NO. 57:

19       ALL TRAININGS RELATED TO the enforcement of Clark County Code § 16.11.

20 RESPONSE:

21       Objection. The instant request is vague and ambiguous, particularly as it pertains to the 22 terms “trainings” and “enforcement.” Defendant further objects that it is not the entity
23 responsible for the enforcement of Clark County Code § 16.13.030 or Clark County Code §
24 16.11. The instant request is further objectionable as it is not reasonably calculated to lead to 25 the discovery of admissible evidence. Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject
26 to the same, Defendant responds as follows:

27 ///

28 ///

1 To the extent the ordinance may be considered a training, see the text of Chapter 16.13
2 to the Clark County Code, disclosed in Defendant Clark County’s Initial Disclosures as bates

6 REQUEST NO. 58:

7 ALL POLICIES RELATED TO the enforcement of Clark County Code § 16.11.

8 RESPONSE:

9 Objection. The instant request is vague and ambiguous, particularly as it pertains to the 10 terms “policies” and “enforcement.” Defendant further objects that it is not the entity
11 responsible for the enforcement of Clark County Code § 16.13.030 or Clark County Code §
12 16.11. The instant request is further objectionable as it is not reasonably calculated to lead to 13 the discovery of admissible evidence. Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject
14 to the same, Defendant responds as follows:

15 To the extent the text of the ordinance may be considered a training material, see the 16 text of Chapter 16.13 to the Clark County Code, disclosed in Defendant Clark County’s Initial 17 Disclosures as bates CC 140 to CC 145; see also Clark County Code § 16.11 available online.

18 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant reserves the right to supplement its response to
19 the instant request as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

20 REQUEST NO. 59:

21 ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO the enforcement of 22 Clark County Code § 16.11, including but not limited to citations, criminal complaints, arrest
23 reports, and arrest declarations.

24 RESPONSE:

25 Objection. The instant Request is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of 26 admissible evidence. Clark County Code § 16.11 is not at issue in the subject litigation and
27 has already been deemed constitutional on its face by United States District Court for the 28 District of Nevada. See Taylor v. LVMPD, et al., Case No. 2:19-CV-00995. The instant

1 Request is further objectionable because it is unduly burdensome, overly broad, and not
2 proportional to the needs of the case. Defendant further objects to the instant Request because
3 it is not the custodian of records for LVMPD records, which are equally available to both
4 parties. Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant answers
5 as follows:

6 It is upon information and belief that Clark County has no records responsive to this
7 request in its possession.

9 the instant request as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

10 REQUEST NO. 60:

11 ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS defining “chronic offender(s),” as 12 stated by Sheriff Kevin McMahill in his interview for the article Police won’t stop photos on 13 Strip bridges under new law, sheriff says with the Las Vegas Review-Journal published on 14 January 17, 2024.

15 RESPONSE:

16 Objection. The instant Request for Production is vague and ambiguous as written. The 17 instant Request is also not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible
18 evidence as these comments were made post-hac after the subject ordinance had already been
19 enacted. See, e.g., Clift v. City of Burlington, Vt., 925 F. Supp. 2d 614, 637 (D. Vt. 2013);
20 McGuire v. Reilly, 260 F.3d 36, 47 (1st Cir. 2001). Furthermore, as Sheriff Kevin McMahill
21 is an elected official who heads the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, a separate
22 legal entity, and is neither an employee nor official of Clark County, Clark County objects to
23 a Request demanding supporting documents for his statements or the content of articles
24 prepared by third-party media outlets which are equally available to the parties by subpoena
25 or public records request. Plaintiffs’ request in this regard is both overly broad, unduly
26 burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case. Without waiving the foregoing
27 objections and subject to the same, Defendant answers as follows:

28 Defendant is not aware of any documents responsive to this Request in its possession.

1 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant reserves the right to supplement its response to
2 the instant request as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

3 REQUEST NO. 61:

4 ALL e-mails and ANY other COMMUNICATIONS between LVMPD and
5 DEFENDANT RELATED TO Clark County Code § 16.13.030.

6 RESPONSE:

7 Objection. The instant request is overly broad and unduly burdensome particularly as 8 it pertains to “ALL e-mails and ANY other COMMUNICATIONS between LVMPD and 9 DEFENDANT RELATED TO Clark County Code § 16.13.030.” Without the provisions of 10 meaningful time restrictions, search terms or user accounts. Even if the subject Request were 11 not overly broad the Request is further objectionable because it impermissibly seeks to 12 ascertain legislators’ subjective motives or opinions and their communications with staff
13 protected under the deliberative process and legislative privileges in First Amendment
14 challenges such is the instant case. See, e.g., City of Las Vegas v. Foley, 747 F.2d 1294, 1298
15 (9th Cir. 1984). The instant Request is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of 16 admissible evidence, and not proportional to the needs of this case. The instant request is also
17 vague and ambiguous to time and provides no meaningful parameters for performing a search
18 of this nature. In facial challenges such as the one at issue in this case, the Court may “only 19 look to [the ordinance’s] terms, to the intent expressed by [the legislative body] who voted its 20 passage, and to the existence or nonexistence of legitimate explanations for its apparent
21 effect.” Nixon v. Adm’r of Gen. Servs., 433 U.S. 425, 484, 97 S. Ct. 2777, 2811, 53 L. Ed. 2d
22 867 (1977) (emphasis added); see also SeaRiver Mar. Fin. Holdings, Inc. v. Mineta, 309 F.3d
23 662, 669 (9th Cir. 2002). The Court must take a legislative body’s findings at face value and 24 may not “look beyond the face of the [ordinance] and speculate about the [legislative body’s]
25 subjective intent” based on post-hac or non-public communications of staff. See, e.g., Clift v.
26 City of Burlington, Vt., 925 F. Supp. 2d 614, 637 (D. Vt. 2013); McGuire v. Reilly, 260 F.3d
27 36, 47 (1st Cir. 2001).

1 Furthermore, communications between LVMPD and Clark County and its employees,
2 officers, and staff regarding Clark County Code are protected under the deliberative process
3 privilege and are not admissible or discoverable in facial challenges. See United States Fish &
4 Wildlife Serv. v. Sierra Club, Inc., 592 U.S. 261, 267–68, 141 S. Ct. 777, 785–86, 209 L. Ed.
5 2d 78 (2021). Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant
6 Clark County answers as follows:

7 To the extent any of the documents already disclosed in this action are responsive to 8 the instant request, see Defendant Clark County’s Initial Disclosures and all supplements
9 thereto.

10 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant reserves the right to supplement its response to
11 the instant request as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

12 REQUEST NO. 62:

13 ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS including ANY of the following 14 keywords:

- 20 • “touchdown structure”
- 21 • “pedestrian traffic”
- 22 • “disorder”
- 23 • “stop or stand”
- 24 • “stopping or standing”

25 RESPONSE:

26 Objection. The instant request is overly broad and unduly burdensome particularly as 27 it pertains to “ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS including ANY of the 28 following keywords” without the provisions of meaningful time restrictions, search

1 parameters or user accounts. Even if the subject Request were not overly broad the Request is
2 further objectionable because it impermissibly seeks to ascertain legislators' subjective
3 motives or opinions and their communications with staff protected under the deliberative

5 e.g., City of Las Vegas v. Foley, 747 F.2d 1294, 1298 (9th Cir. 1984). The instant Request is
6 not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, and not proportional
7 to the needs of this case. In facial challenges such as the one at issue in this case, the Court

12 309 F.3d 662, 669 (9th Cir. 2002). The Court must take a legislative body’s findings at face
13 value and may not “look beyond the face of the [ordinance] and speculate about the [legislative 14 body’s] subjective intent” based on post-hac or non-public communications of staff. See, e.g.,

16 F.3d 36, 47 (1st Cir. 2001).

17 Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant Clark
18 County answers as follows:

19 Defendant declines to respond to the instant Request as the requested communications
20 are privileged and irrelevant and the work required to perform an undefined search of this
21 nature is disproportionate to the needs of the case.

1 REQUEST NO. 68:

2 ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO ANY and ALL
3 statistics collected by DEFENDANT or ANY law enforcement agency RELATED TO Clark
4 County Code § 16.13.030.

5 RESPONSE:

6 Objection. The instant request is overly broad and unduly burdensome particularly as 7 it pertains to “ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO ANY and 8 ALL statistics” without the provisions of meaningful time restrictions, search parameters or
9 user accounts. Even if the subject Request were not overly broad, the Request is further
10 objectionable because it impermissibly seeks to ascertain legislators’ subjective motives or 11 opinions and their communications with staff protected under the deliberative process and
12 legislative privileges in First Amendment challenges such is the instant case. See, e.g., City of
13 Las Vegas v. Foley, 747 F.2d 1294, 1298 (9th Cir. 1984). The instant Request is not reasonably
14 calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, and not proportional to the needs
15 of this case. In facial challenges such as the one at issue in this case, the Court may “only look 16 to [the ordinance’s] terms, to the intent expressed by [the legislative body] who voted its
17 passage, and to the existence or nonexistence of legitimate explanations for its apparent
18 effect.” Nixon v. Adm’r of Gen. Servs., 433 U.S. 425, 484, 97 S. Ct. 2777, 2811, 53 L. Ed. 2d
19 867 (1977) (emphasis added); see also SeaRiver Mar. Fin. Holdings, Inc. v. Mineta, 309 F.3d
20 662, 669 (9th Cir. 2002). The Court must take a legislative body’s findings at face value and 21 may not “look beyond the face of the [ordinance] and speculate about the [legislative body’s]
22 subjective intent” based on post-hac or non-public communications of staff. See, e.g., Clift v.
23 City of Burlington, Vt., 925 F. Supp. 2d 614, 637 (D. Vt. 2013); McGuire v. Reilly, 260 F.3d
24 36, 47 (1st Cir. 2001). Defendant further objects that it is a separate and distinct legal entity
25 from Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department and is not responsible for the enforcement
26 of laws in Clark County and is not the custodian of records for statistics or data related to Clark
27 County Code § 16.13.030. Defendant further objects to the extent that the subject Request
28

1 requires the creation of documents by Defendant from data that is equally available to both
2 parties.

3 Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant Clark
4 County answers as follows:

5 It is upon information and belief that Defendant is not in possession of any documents
6 responsive to this request.

7 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant reserves the right to supplement its response to
8 the instant request as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

9 REQUEST NO. 69:

10 ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO ANY and ALL
11 statistics collected by DEFENDANT or ANY law enforcement agency RELATED TO Clark
12 County Code § 16.11.

13 RESPONSE:

14 Objection. The instant request is overly broad and unduly burdensome particularly as 15 it pertains to “ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO ANY and 16 ALL statistics” without the provisions of meaningful time restrictions, search parameters or
17 user accounts. Even if the subject Request were not overly broad, the Request is further
18 objectionable because it impermissibly seeks to ascertain legislators’ subjective motives or 19 opinions and their communications with staff protected under the deliberative process and

23 of this case. In facial challenges such as the one at issue in this case, the Court may “only look

4 36, 47 (1st Cir. 2001). Defendant further objects that it is a separate and distinct legal entity
5 from Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department and is not responsible for the enforcement
6 of laws in Clark County and is not the custodian of records for statistics or data related to Clark
7 County Code § 16.11. Defendant further objects to the extent that the subject Request requires
8 the creation of documents by Defendant from data that is equally available to both parties.

9 Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant Clark
10 County answers as follows:

11 It is upon information and belief that Defendant is not in possession of any documents
12 responsive to this request.

13 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant reserves the right to supplement its response to
14 the instant request as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

15 REQUEST NO. 70:

16 ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS that define “disorderly offenses” in 17 the RESORT CORRIDOR, as used in Clark County Code § 16.13.010.

18 RESPONSE:

19 Objection. The instant request is overly broad and unduly burdensome particularly as 20 it pertains to “ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS” without the provisions of 21 meaningful time restrictions, search parameters or user accounts. Even if the subject Request
22 were not overly broad, the Request is further objectionable because it impermissibly seeks to
23 ascertain legislators’ subjective motives or opinions and their communications with staff
24 protected under the deliberative process and legislative privileges in First Amendment
25 challenges such is the instant case. See, e.g., City of Las Vegas v. Foley, 747 F.2d 1294, 1298

27 admissible evidence, and not proportional to the needs of this case. In facial challenges such 28 as the one at issue in this case, the Court may “only look to [the ordinance’s] terms, to the

3 433 U.S. 425, 484, 97 S. Ct. 2777, 2811, 53 L. Ed. 2d 867 (1977) (emphasis added); see also
4 SeaRiver Mar. Fin. Holdings, Inc. v. Mineta, 309 F.3d 662, 669 (9th Cir. 2002). The Court
5 must take a legislative body’s findings at face value and may not “look beyond the face of the 6 [ordinance] and speculate about the [legislative body’s] subjective intent” based on post-hac
7 or non-public communications of staff. See, e.g., Clift v. City of Burlington, Vt., 925 F. Supp.
8 2d 614, 637 (D. Vt. 2013); McGuire v. Reilly, 260 F.3d 36, 47 (1st Cir. 2001). Defendant
9 further objects that the instant Request calls for a legal conclusion and for Clark County to 10 provide supporting documentation regarding the definition or plain meaning of common
11 words.

12 Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant Clark
13 County answers as follows:

4 ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO service calls for 5 “disorderly offenses” in the RESORT CORRIDOR, as used in Clark County Code §

7 RESPONSE:

8 Objection. The instant request is overly broad and unduly burdensome particularly as 9 it pertains to “ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO service calls

27 that it is a separate and distinct legal entity from Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department
28 and is not responsible for the enforcement of laws in Clark County and is not the custodian of

1 records for statistics or data related to the same. Accordingly, the data sought by the instant
2 Request is equally available to both parties. Defendant further objects to the extent the instant
3 Request is premature, expert reports will be disclosed according to the Discovery Plan and

20 REQUEST NO. 72:

22 to pedestrians in the RESORT CORRIDOR.

23 RESPONSE:

24 Objection. The instant Request seeks information that is a matter of public record

26 same, Defendant responds as follows:

20 ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO data collected by 21 DEFENDANT or ANY law enforcement agency on PEDESTRIAN BRIDGES, including but 22 not limited to citations, criminal complaints, arrest reports, and arrest declarations.

23 RESPONSE:

24 Objection. The instant request is overly broad and unduly burdensome particularly as 25 it pertains to "ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO data" without 26 the provisions of meaningful time restrictions or search parameters. Even if the subject
27 Request were not overly broad, the Request is further objectionable because it impermissibly

14 further objects that it is a separate and distinct legal entity from Las Vegas Metropolitan Police 15 Department and is not responsible for the enforcement of laws in Clark County and is not the 16 custodian of records for citations, arrest reports, and arrest declarations.

17 Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant Clark
18 County answers as follows:

16 REQUEST NO. 74:

8 DOCUMENTS are not provided in the response to REQUEST NO. 28.

9 RESPONSE:

10 See Defendant’s Objections and Response to Request No. 28.

11 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant reserves the right to supplement its response to
12 the instant request as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

13 REQUEST NO. 77:

14 ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO First Amendment
15 activities, including but not limited to solicitation, panhandling, protesting, expressive
16 conduct, musical performances, street performing, busking, tabling, amplified sound,
17 handbilling, picketing, proselytizing, or preaching on the PEDESTRIAN BRIDGES.

18 RESPONSE:

19 Objection. The instant request is facially overbroad. Requests for any and all documents
20 and communications without reasonable time and scope parameters are facially overbroad.
21 See, e.g., LLC v. Spain, No. 3:19-cv-02280-CAB-KSC, 2020 WL 6741675, at * 3 (S.D. Cal.
22 Nov. 17, 2020) (“As a rule, requests for ‘any and all’ documents or communications (or 23 testimony about those materials) are facially overbroad.”); Painters Joint Comm. v. Emp.
24 Painters Trust Health & Welfare Fund, No. 2:10-cv-01385-JCM-PAL, 2011 WL 4549232, at
25 *2 (D. Nev. Sept. 29, 2011); Guillen v. B.J.C.R. LLC, 341 F.R.D. 61, 71 (D. Nev. 2022). Even
26 if the subject Request were not overly broad, the Request is further objectionable because it
27 impermissibly seeks to ascertain legislators’ subjective motives or opinions and their
28 communications with staff protected under the deliberative process and legislative privileges

1 in First Amendment challenges such is the instant case. See, e.g., City of Las Vegas v. Foley,
2 747 F.2d 1294, 1298 (9th Cir. 1984). The instant Request is not reasonably calculated to lead
3 to the discovery of admissible evidence, and not proportional to the needs of this case. In facial
4 challenges such as the one at issue in this case, the Court may “only look to [the ordinance’s]
5 terms, to the intent expressed by [the legislative body] who voted its passage, and to the
6 existence or nonexistence of legitimate explanations for its apparent effect.” Nixon v. Adm’r
7 of Gen. Servs., 433 U.S. 425, 484, 97 S. Ct. 2777, 2811, 53 L. Ed. 2d 867 (1977) (emphasis
8 added); see also SeaRiver Mar. Fin. Holdings, Inc. v. Mineta, 309 F.3d 662, 669 (9th Cir.
9 2002). The Court must take a legislative body’s findings at face value and may not “look
10 beyond the face of the [ordinance] and speculate about the [legislative body’s] subjective
11 intent” based on post-hac or non-public communications of staff. See, e.g., Clift v. City of 12 Burlington, Vt., 925 F. Supp. 2d 614, 637 (D. Vt. 2013); McGuire v. Reilly, 260 F.3d 36, 47
13 (1st Cir. 2001).

14 Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant Clark
15 County answers as follows:

17 County Commissioners, disclosed as bates CC 127 to CC 131 in DEFENDANT CLARK

28 FRCP 26(a)(1); 1994 Las Vegas Boulevard South Pedestrian Walkway Study, disclosed in

10 DISCLOSURES AND PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS PER FRCP 26(a)(1).

11 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant reserves the right to supplement its response to
12 the instant request as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

13 REQUEST NO. 78:

14 ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO First Amendment
15 activities, including but not limited to solicitation, panhandling, protesting, expressive
16 conduct, musical performances, street performing, busking, tabling, amplified sound,
17 handbilling, picketing, proselytizing, or preaching in the RESORT CORRIDOR.

18 RESPONSE:

19 Objection. The instant request is facially overbroad. Requests for any and all documents
20 and communications without reasonable time and scope parameters are facially overbroad.
21 See, e.g., LLC v. Spain, No. 3:19-cv-02280-CAB-KSC, 2020 WL 6741675, at * 3 (S.D. Cal.
22 Nov. 17, 2020) (“As a rule, requests for ‘any and all’ documents or communications (or 23 testimony about those materials) are facially overbroad.”); Painters Joint Comm. v. Emp.
24 Painters Trust Health & Welfare Fund, No. 2:10-cv-01385-JCM-PAL, 2011 WL 4549232, at
25 *2 (D. Nev. Sept. 29, 2011); Guillen v. B.J.C.R. LLC, 341 F.R.D. 61, 71 (D. Nev. 2022). Even
26 if the subject Request were not overly broad, the Request is further objectionable because it
27 impermissibly seeks to ascertain legislators’ subjective motives or opinions and their
28 communications with staff protected under the deliberative process and legislative privileges

1 in First Amendment challenges such is the instant case. See, e.g., City of Las Vegas v. Foley,
2 747 F.2d 1294, 1298 (9th Cir. 1984). The instant Request is not reasonably calculated to lead
3 to the discovery of admissible evidence, and not proportional to the needs of this case. In facial
4 challenges such as the one at issue in this case, the Court may “only look to [the ordinance’s]
5 terms, to the intent expressed by [the legislative body] who voted its passage, and to the
6 existence or nonexistence of legitimate explanations for its apparent effect.” Nixon v. Adm’r
7 of Gen. Servs., 433 U.S. 425, 484, 97 S. Ct. 2777, 2811, 53 L. Ed. 2d 867 (1977) (emphasis
8 added); see also SeaRiver Mar. Fin. Holdings, Inc. v. Mineta, 309 F.3d 662, 669 (9th Cir.
9 2002). The Court must take a legislative body’s findings at face value and may not “look
10 beyond the face of the [ordinance] and speculate about the [legislative body’s] subjective
12 Burlington, Vt., 925 F. Supp. 2d 614, 637 (D. Vt. 2013); McGuire v. Reilly, 260 F.3d 36, 47
13 (1st Cir. 2001).

14 Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant Clark
15 County answers as follows:

17 County Commissioners, disclosed as bates CC 127 to CC 131 in DEFENDANT CLARK

10 DISCLOSURES AND PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS PER FRCP 26(a)(1).

11 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant reserves the right to supplement its response to
12 the instant request as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

13 REQUEST NO. 79:

14 ALL DOCUMENTS RELATED TO the legislative history of Clark County Code § 15 16.13.030.

16 RESPONSE:

17 Objection. The instant interrogatory is vague and ambiguous as it pertains to the term
18 “legislative history.” Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same,
19 Defendant responds as follows:

20 See Certified copy of documentation regarding Board of County Commissioners
21 Meeting, November 21, 2023, item number 68 with audio and video; Certified copy of
22 documentation regarding Board of County Commissioners Meeting, December 5, 2023, item

24 Commissioners Meeting, January 2, 2024, item number 38 with audio and video; Report titled:
25 Questions Related to Public Safety on Pedestrian Bridges; Amended Title 16 of the Clark
26 County Code approved, January 2, 2024, to add Chapter 16.13, disclosed as bates CC 001 to 27 CC 145 in Defendant Clark County’s Initial Disclosure and Production of Documents Per 28 FRCP 26(a)(1); see also Unofficial Transcript of Board of County Commissioners Meeting,

1 January 2, 2024, item number 38, disclosed as CC 1405 to CC 1418 in DEFENDANT CLARK
3 DOCUMENTS PER FRCP 26(a)(1).

4 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant Clark County reserves the right to supplement the
5 instant Request as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

6 REQUEST NO. 80:

7 DOCUMENTS upon which DEFENDANT intends to rely to support ANY denials in 8 ANY responses to PLAINTIFFS' allegations and/or affirmative defenses asserted against
9 DEFENDANT in this action.

10 RESPONSE:

11 Objection. The instant Request calls for a legal conclusion and impermissibly seeks
12 disclosure of Defendant's legal strategy. Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject
13 to the same, Defendant responds as follows:

15 PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS PER FRCP 26(a)(1) AND ALL SUPPLEMENTS
16 THERETO.

17 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant Clark County reserves the right to supplement the 18 instant Request as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

19 REQUEST NO. 81:

20 The Curriculum Vitae or resume for the following individuals:

- 21 • Clint Spencer, Clark County Department of Public Works, Road Division
- 22 • Dustin Crowther, County Surveyor
- 23 • William H. Sousa.

24 RESPONSE:

25 Objection. The instant Request is premature. Defendant Clark County will disclose
26 experts in this matter, if any, in accordance with the deadlines provided in the Discovery Plan
27 and Scheduling Order in this matter. Defendant further objects to the extent that the instant
28 Request is unduly burdensome and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of

1 admissible evidence. Facial challenges do not involve attacking the qualifications of County
2 staff to rehash the policy debate underlying legislation in the courts and, accordingly, the
3 documents Plaintiffs seek in the instant Request are not relevant to the instant litigation.
4 Defendant further objects to the extent the instant Request calls for the creation of documents
5 not in existence and/or not in the possession of Clark County. Without waiving the foregoing
6 objections and subject to the same, Defendant responds as follows:

7 Defendant Clark County will disclose the curriculum vitae or resume for its designated
8 experts in accordance with the deadlines provided in the Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order
9 in this matter.

10 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant Clark County reserves the right to supplement the 11 instant Response as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

12 REQUEST NO. 82:

13 ALL DOCUMENTS containing the thoughts, impressions, opinions, speculations,
14 observations, or ANY statements held or made by the following individuals RELATED to the 15 PEDESTRIAN BRIDGES, including but not limited to ANY COMMUNICATIONS, final 16 reports, draft reports, requests for information, or memoranda:

- 17 • Clint Spencer, Clark County Department of Public Works, Road Division
19 • William H. Sousa.

20 RESPONSE:

21 Objection. The instant Request is vague as to time and ambiguous, particularly as it
22 pertains to the terms: “thoughts, impressions, opinions, speculations, observations.”
23 The instant Request is also unduly burdensome, overly broad particularly as it calls for the 24 disclosure for “ALL DOCUMENTS” without provisions of any meaningful time constraints,
25 parameters or personally identifying search terms. It is not reasonably calculated to lead to the 26 discovery of admissible evidence. Requests for any and all documents without reasonable time
27 and scope parameters are facially overbroad. See, e.g., LLC v. Spain, No. 3:19-cv-02280-CAB-
28 KSC, 2020 WL 6741675, at * 3 (S.D. Cal. Nov. 17, 2020) (“As a rule, requests for ‘any and

1 all' documents or communications (or testimony about those materials) are facially
2 overbroad.”); Painters Joint Comm. v. Emp. Painters Trust Health & Welfare Fund, No. 2:10-
3 cv-01385-JCM-PAL, 2011 WL 4549232, at *2 (D. Nev. Sept. 29, 2011); Guillen v. B.J.C.R.
4 LLC, 341 F.R.D. 61, 71 (D. Nev. 2022). Defendant further objects to the extent the instant
5 request seeks documents protected from disclosure under deliberative process privilege.
6 United States Fish & Wildlife Serv. v. Sierra Club, Inc., 592 U.S. 261, 267–68, 141 S. Ct. 777,
7 785–86, 209 L. Ed. 2d 78 (2021); Soucie v. David, 448 F.2d 1067, 1077–78 (D.C.Cir.1971);
8 National Wildlife Federation v. U.S. Forest Service, 861 F.2d 1114, 1118–19 (9th Cir.1988).
9 The instant Request is also premature. All expert disclosures will be made in accordance with 10 Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(a)(2)(D). The instant request is further objectionable as Dr. William Sousa
11 was retained in anticipation of the subject litigation and to serve as Defendant Clark County’s
12 testifying expert witness in the same. All communications between Dr. Sousa and Defendant
13 Clark County or its counsel, not subject to one of the identified exceptions, are protected as
14 qualified attorney work product. See Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(b)(4)(C). Without waiving the foregoing
15 objections and subject to the same, Defendant responds as follows:

16 Defendant cannot reasonably respond to the instant request as worded. To the extent it
17 is responsive, See redacted e-mail communications between Clark County and Dr. William 18 Sousa and the associated privilege log, disclosed in Defendant’s First Supplemental 19 Disclosures as bates CC 146-CC 252; see also Certified copy of documentation regarding 20 Board of County Commissioners Meeting, January 2, 2024, item number 38 with audio and 21 video, disclosed as bates CC 071 to CC 126; Report titled: Questions Related to Public Safety
22 on Pedestrian Bridges, disclosed as bates CC 132 to CC 139; and Amended Title 16 of the 23 Clark County Code approved, January 2, 2024, to add Chapter 16.13, disclosed as bates CC
24 140 to CC 145 in DEFENDANT CLARK COUNTY’S INITIAL DISCLOSURE AND 25 PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS PER FRCP 26(a)(1).

Defendant Clark County's Answers to Plaintiffs' First Set of Interrogatories

1 COMES NOW, Defendant CLARK COUNTY (hereinafter “Defendant”), through its
2 attorney STEVEN B. WOLFSON, District Attorney, and by JOEL K. BROWNING, Deputy
3 District Attorney, and JEFFREY S. ROGAN, Deputy District Attorney, and hereby answers
4 PLAINTIFF’S FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES, pursuant to the requirements of Rule
5 33, as follows:

6 INTERROGATORY NO. 1:

7 DEFINE the term "disorderly offenses" as used in Clark County Code § 16.13.010,
8 including but not limited to IDENTIFYING ALL specific conduct or criminal offenses
9 included in the term "disorderly offense" as used in Clark County Code § 16.13.010 and 10 IDENTIFYING ANY DOCUMENT, along with ANY relevant page and line citation, that 11 DESCRIBES what a "disorderly offense" is in the context of Clark County Code § 16.13.010.

12 ANSWER:

13 Objection. Defendant objects to the extent that Plaintiffs’ Interrogatory calls for a legal 14 conclusion. The instant Interrogatory is further objectionable to the extent that it calls for a 15 line-by-line explanation of an ordinance and/or the plain meaning and common definition of 16 words equally available to both parties. Defendant further objects to the extent the instant
17 Interrogatory seeks to impermissibly establish legislators’ subjective motives or opinions
18 protected under the deliberative process and legislative privileges in First Amendment
19 challenges such is the instant case. See, e.g., City of Las Vegas v. Foley, 747 F.2d 1294, 1298
20 (9th Cir. 1984). Inquiries for First Amendment purposes are strictly limited to the facial effect
21 of the ordinance upon freedom of expression, not upon the legislative bodies’ subjective intent
22 or individual legislators’ subjective understanding of the language of an ordinance absent
23 objective indicators of illicit purpose which are not present here. Id; see also Colacurcio v.
24 City of Kent, 163 F.3d 545, 552 (9th Cir. 1998). Without waiving the foregoing objections and
25 subject to the same, Defendant answers as follows:

26 The term “disorderly offenses” as used in Clark County Code § 16.13.010 is undefined
27 in Clark County Code and should be attributed its plain meaning by the Court as a matter of 28 law. Clark County cannot define a term where no definition has been provided by its legislative

1 body, the Clark County Board of County Commissioners, as each commissioner's
2 understanding of the term is subjective and not discoverable in facial First Amendment
3 challenges. To the extent it is responsive to Plaintiffs' Interrogatory, Clark County directs
4 Plaintiffs to the legislative record disclosed in Defendant Clark County's Initial Disclosure
5 and Production of Documents per FRCP 26(a)(1) and all supplements thereto including, but
6 not limited to, bates CC 001 to CC 032, CC 033 to CC 070, CC 071 to CC 126, CC 127 to CC
7 131, CC 132 to CC 139, CC 140 to CC 145, CC 824 to CC 973, CC 974 to CC 1163, CC 1164
8 to CC 1206, CC 1207 to CC 1383, CC 1405 to CC 1418, CC 1419 to CC 1427, CC 1428 to 9 CC 1437, and CC 1438 to CC 1446 and any dictionaries as may be appropriate.

10 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant Clark County reserves the right to supplement the 11 instant Answer as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

12 INTERROGATORY NO. 2:

13 DEFINE the term "criminal disorder" as used in Clark County Code § 16.13.010,
14 including but not limited to IDENTIFYING ALL specific conduct or criminal offenses
15 included in the term "criminal disorder" as used in Clark County Code § 16.13.010 and
16 IDENTIFYING ANY DOCUMENT, along with ANY relevant page and line citation, that 17 DESCRIBES what a "criminal disorder" is in the context of Clark County Code § 16.13.010.

18 ANSWER:

19 Objection. Defendant objects to the extent that Plaintiffs' Interrogatory calls for a legal
20 conclusion. The instant Interrogatory is further objectionable to the extent that it calls for a
21 line-by-line explanation of an ordinance and/or the plain meaning and common definition of
22 words equally available to both parties. Defendant further objects to the extent the instant
23 Interrogatory seeks to impermissibly establish legislators' subjective motives or opinions
24 protected under the deliberative process and legislative privileges in First Amendment
25 challenges such is the instant case. See, e.g., City of Las Vegas v. Foley, 747 F.2d 1294, 1298
26 (9th Cir. 1984). Inquiries for First Amendment purposes are strictly limited to the facial effect
27 of the ordinance upon freedom of expression, not upon the legislative bodies' subjective intent
28 or individual legislators' subjective understanding of the language of an ordinance absent

1 objective indicators of illicit purpose which are not present here. Id; see also Colacurcio v.
2 City of Kent, 163 F.3d 545, 552 (9th Cir. 1998). Without waiving the foregoing objections and
3 subject to the same, Defendant answers as follows:

4 The term “disorderly conduct” as used in Clark County Code § 16.13.010 is undefined
5 in Clark County Code and should be attributed its plain meaning by the Court as a matter of
6 law. Clark County cannot define a term where no definition has been provided by its legislative
7 body, the Clark County Board of County Commissioners, as each commissioner’s
8 understanding of the term is subjective and not discoverable in facial First Amendment
9 challenges. To the extent it is responsive to Plaintiffs’ Interrogatory, Clark County directs
10 Plaintiffs to the legislative record disclosed in Defendant Clark County’s Initial Disclosure
11 and Production of Documents per FRCP 26(a)(1) and all supplements thereto including, but
12 not limited to, bates CC 001 to CC 032, CC 033 to CC 070, CC 071 to CC 126, CC 127 to CC
13 131, CC 132 to CC 139, CC 140 to CC 145, CC 824 to CC 973, CC 974 to CC 1163, CC 1164
14 to CC 1206, CC 1207 to CC 1383, CC 1405 to CC 1418, CC 1419 to CC 1427, CC 1428 to 15 CC 1437, and CC 1438 to CC 1446 and any dictionaries as may be appropriate.

16 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant Clark County reserves the right to supplement the
17 instant Answer as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

18 INTERROGATORY NO. 3:

19 IDENTIFY ALL FACTS YOU relied upon to conclude Clark County Code§ 16.13.030
20 was necessary to address "captive audience[s]" on the PEDESTRIAN BRIDGES as stated in 21 Clark County Code § 16.13.010, including but not limited to IDENTIFYING ALL instances
22 where a "captive audience" occurred on the PEDESTRIAN BRIDGES and IDENTIFYING 23 ANY DOCUMENT, along with ANY relevant page and line citation, that DESCRIBES the 24 formation of a "captive audience" as used in Clark County Code§ 16.13.030.

25 ANSWER:

26 Objection. The instant Interrogatory seeks to impermissibly establish legislators’
27 subjective motives or opinions protected under the deliberative process and legislative 28 privileges in First Amendment challenges such is the instant case. See, e.g., City of Las Vegas

1 v. Foley, 747 F.2d 1294, 1298 (9th Cir. 1984). Inquiries for First Amendment purposes are
2 strictly limited to the facial effect of the ordinance upon freedom of expression, not upon the
3 legislative bodies' subjective intent or individual legislators' subjective understanding of the 4 language of an ordinance absent objective indicators of illicit purpose which are not present
5 here. Id; see also Colacurcio v. City of Kent, 163 F.3d 545, 552 (9th Cir. 1998). Defendant
6 further objects to the extent that Defendant Clark County is not the custodian of records for 7 records about enforcement activity on the pedestrian bridges and, accordingly, lacks sufficient
8 knowledge to answer Plaintiffs' Interrogatory as worded. Defendant further objects to the 9 extent that the instant Interrogatory is vague and ambiguous as to time and as it pertains to the 10 terms "DOCUMENT" or "page and line citation." The Interrogatory is further objectionable 11 as it is overly broad and unduly burdensome as it seeks an accounting of "ALL instances" and 12 is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

13 Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant answers
14 as follows:

15 While the County has a burden to establish "that the anticipated harms it bases the 16 ordinance on are real and not merely conjectural," it does not have a burden to marshal evidence
17 of every instance of wrongful conduct that has ever occurred on a pedestrian bridge, nor is it 18 obligated to rehash the policy debate or the weight of the evidence supporting the enactment
19 of the subject ordinance with Plaintiffs' counsel for a second time in discovery. [ECF No. 51]
20 at 31:4-5. To the extent it is responsive to Plaintiffs' instant Interrogatory, Defendant directs 21 Plaintiffs to the relevant legislative record disclosed in Defendant Clark County's Initial 22 Disclosure and Production of Documents per FRCP 26(a)(1) and all supplements thereto
23 including, but not limited to CC 071 to CC 126, CC 128, CC 133 to CC 134, CC 142, CC 824
24 to CC 973, CC 974 to CC 1163, CC 1164 to CC 1206, CC 1207 to CC 1383, CC 1428 to CC
25 1436, CC 1437 to 1461 (including photographs of persons in the pedestrian flow zones
26 incapacitated by drug and alcohol use, lighting fires, engaged in lewd and indecent conduct, 27 engaging in acts of violence, conducting illegal confidence games and gambling, pick-28 pocketing, engaging in unlicensed and illegal commerce, approaching pedestrians for

1 donations or photographs, holding signs, and loitering with pets thereby either exploiting 2 captive audiences or congesting pedestrian flow zones thereby contributing to the creation of 3 captive audiences).

5 the instant Answer as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

6 INTERROGATORY NO. 4:

7 DEFINE the term "stop" as used in Clark County Code § 16.13.030, including
8 IDENTIFYING ANY circumstance or activity where a person would be allowed to cease
9 moving on a PEDESTRIAN BRIDGE without violating Clark County Code§ 16.13.030 and 10 confirming whether a person would be allowed to cease moving on a PEDESTRIAN BRIDGE 11 to engage in:

- 12 • "incidental and fleeting viewing of the Las Vegas Strip from the pedestrian bridge" as 13 stated in Clark County Code§ 16.13.010;
- 14 • "brief or insubstantial variations in movement" as stated in DEFENDANT Clark 15 County s Motion to Dismiss Plaintiffs Complaint, ECF No. 9, 15:22; and
- 16 • "taking photographs" as stated in DEFENDANT Clark County s Motion to Dismiss
17 Plaintiffs Complaint, ECF No. 9, 15:2-3.

18 ANSWER:

19 Objection. The instant Interrogatory is compound with discrete subparts. Defendant 20 further objects to the extent that Plaintiffs' Interrogatory calls for legal conclusions. The 21 instant Interrogatory is further objectionable to the extent that it calls for a line-by-line
22 explanation of an ordinance and/or the plain meaning and common definition of words equally 23 available to both parties. Defendant further objects to the extent the instant Interrogatory seeks 24 to impermissibly establish legislators' subjective motives or opinions protected under the 25 deliberative process and legislative privileges in First Amendment challenges such is the 26 instant case. See, e.g., City of Las Vegas v. Foley, 747 F.2d 1294, 1298 (9th Cir. 1984).
27 Inquiries for First Amendment purposes are strictly limited to the facial effect of the ordinance
28 upon freedom of expression, not upon the legislative bodies' subjective intent or individual

1 legislators’ subjective understanding of the language of an ordinance absent objective
2 indicators of illicit purpose which are not present here. Id; see also Colacurcio v. City of Kent,
3 163 F.3d 545, 552 (9th Cir. 1998). Defendant further objects to the extent the instant
4 Interrogatory is overly broad and unduly burdensome as it requires Clark County to 5 “IDENTIFY[...] ANY circumstance or activity.” Without waiving the foregoing objections
6 and subject to the same, Defendant answers as follows:

7       The term “stop” as used in Clark County Code § 16.13.010 is undefined in Clark
8 County Code and should be attributed its plain meaning by the Court as a matter of law. Clark
9 County cannot define a term where no definition has been provided by its legislative body, the 10 Clark County Board of County Commissioners, as each commissioner’s understanding of the 11 term is subjective and not discoverable in facial First Amendment challenges. To the extent it
12 is responsive to Plaintiffs’ Interrogatory, Clark County directs Plaintiffs to the language of the 13 ordinance and the legislative record disclosed in Defendant Clark County’s Initial Disclosure
14 and Production of Documents per FRCP 26(a)(1) and all supplements thereto including, but
15 not limited to bates CC 001 to CC 032, CC 033 to CC 070, CC 071 to CC 126, CC 127 to CC
16 131, CC 132 to CC 139, CC 140 to CC 145, CC 824 to CC 973, CC 974 to CC 1163, CC 1164
17 to CC 1206, CC 1207 to CC 1383, CC 1405 to CC 1418, CC 1419 to CC 1427, CC 1428 to 18 CC 1437, and CC 1438 to CC 1446 and any dictionaries as may be appropriate.

19       Furthermore, the discrete subparts of the instant Interrogatory as it pertains to 20 enforcement of the ordinance constitute incomplete hypotheticals which require speculation
21 on the part of Clark County as it is not the entity tasked with enforcing laws. While the 22 legislative record makes clear that the Clark County Commissioners passed CCC § 16.13.030
23 with the anticipation that LVMPD would exercise its discretion in enforcing the subject 24 ordinance fairly and with a priority on educating and obtaining voluntary compliance from 25 residents and visitors, each application of CCC § 16.13.030 would need to be evaluated on its 26 own merits, by the Court, to determine if it was applied by LVMPD constitutionally in “as 27 applied” challenges and Clark County declines to speculate about potential applications of 28 CCC § 16.13.030 based on incomplete and hypothetical facts.

1 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant Clark County reserves the right to supplement the
2 instant Answer as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

3 INTERROGATORY NO. 5:

4 IDENTIFY ALL FACTS YOU were aware of at the time of the passage of Clark
5 County Code § 16.13.030 that a prohibition on stopping or standing on the PEDESTRIAN 6 BRIDGES would "ensur[e] public safety" as stated in Clark County Code§ 16.13.010.

7 ANSWER:

8 Objection. The instant Interrogatory seeks to impermissibly establish legislators'
9 subjective motives or opinions protected under the deliberative process and legislative
10 privileges in First Amendment challenges such is the instant case. See, e.g., City of Las Vegas
11 v. Foley, 747 F.2d 1294, 1298 (9th Cir. 1984). Inquiries for First Amendment purposes are 12 strictly limited to the facial effect of the ordinance upon freedom of expression, not upon the 13 legislative bodies' subjective intent or individual legislators' subjective understanding of the 14 language of an ordinance absent objective indicators of illicit purpose which are not present
15 here. Id; see also Colacurcio v. City of Kent, 163 F.3d 545, 552 (9th Cir. 1998). Defendant
16 further objects to the extent the instant request is vague and ambiguous as to time and is overly
17 broad and unduly burdensome as it seeks identification of "ALL FACTS." Defendant further
18 objects that the instant Interrogatory is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of 19 admissible evidence. Defendant further objects that the instant Interrogatory is not 20 proportional to the needs of the case. Without waiving the foregoing objection and subject to 21 the same, Defendant answers as follows:

22 Clark County cannot possibly ascertain all facts known to its employees, staff, and the 23 Clark County Board of County Commissioners nor does it have a duty to disclose the same,
24 as each commissioner's subjective understanding and communications with staff regarding 25 the drafting of the ordinance are not discoverable in facial First Amendment challenges such 26 as this or admissible for consideration. To the extent it is responsive to Plaintiffs'
27 Interrogatory, Clark County directs Plaintiffs to the legislative record and pedestrian bridge
28 studies and manuals disclosed in Defendant Clark County's Initial Disclosure and Production

1 of Documents per FRCP 26(a)(1) and all supplements thereto including, but not limited to,
2 bates CC 001 to CC 032, CC 033 to CC 070, CC 071 to CC 126, CC 127 to CC 131, CC 132
3 to CC 139, CC 140 to CC 145, CC 253 to CC 823, CC 824 to CC 973, CC 974 to CC 1163,
4 CC 1164 to CC 1206, CC 1207 to CC 1383, CC 1405 to CC 1418, CC 1419 to CC 1427, CC
5 1428 to CC 1437, and CC 1438 to CC 1446.

7 instant Answer as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

8 INTERROGATORY NO. 6:

9 IDENTIFY ALL FACTS supporting YOUR claim that at the time of the passage of 10 Clark County Code § 16.13.030 there were "significant public safety and pedestrian traffic 11 flow problems caused by the ever-increasing pedestrian congestion on the pedestrian bridges"
12 as stated in DEFENDANT Clark County's Response to Plaintiffs Motion for Preliminary 13 Injunction and Motion for Temporary Restraining Order, ECF No. 10, 18:19-21.

14 ANSWER:

15 Objection. The instant Interrogatory calls for a legal conclusion. Defendant further
16 objects that instant Interrogatory seeks to impermissibly establish legislators' subjective 17 motives, opinions or knowledge protected under the deliberative process and legislative
18 privileges in First Amendment challenges such is the instant case. See, e.g., City of Las Vegas
19 v. Foley, 747 F.2d 1294, 1298 (9th Cir. 1984). Inquiries for First Amendment purposes are 20 strictly limited to the facial effect of the ordinance upon freedom of expression, not upon the 21 legislative bodies' subjective intent or individual legislators' subjective understanding of the 22 language of an ordinance absent objective indicators of illicit purpose which are not present
23 here. Id; see also Colacurcio v. City of Kent, 163 F.3d 545, 552 (9th Cir. 1998). Defendant
24 further objects to the extent the instant request is vague and ambiguous as to time and is overly
25 broad and unduly burdensome as it seeks identification of "ALL FACTS." Defendant further
26 objects that the instant Interrogatory is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of 27 admissible evidence. Defendant further objects that the instant Interrogatory is not 28

1 proportional to the needs of the case. Without waiving the foregoing objection and subject to
2 the same, Defendant answers as follows:

3 Clark County cannot possibly ascertain all facts known to its employees, staff, and the
4 Clark County Board of County Commissioners nor does it have a duty to disclose the same,
5 as each commissioner's subjective understanding and communications with staff regarding
6 the drafting of the ordinance are not discoverable in facial First Amendment challenges such
7 as this. To the extent it is responsive to Plaintiffs' Interrogatory, Clark County directs Plaintiffs
8 to the legislative record and pedestrian bridge studies and manuals disclosed in Defendant
9 Clark County's Initial Disclosure and Production of Documents per FRCP 26(a)(1) and all
10 supplements thereto including, but not limited to, bates CC 001 to CC 032, CC 033 to CC 070,
11 CC 071 to CC 126, CC 127 to CC 131, CC 132 to CC 139, CC 140 to CC 145, CC 253 to CC
12 823, CC 824 to CC 973, CC 974 to CC 1163, CC 1164 to CC 1206, CC 1207 to CC 1383, CC
13 1405 to CC 1418, CC 1419 to CC 1427, CC 1428 to CC 1437, and CC 1438 to CC 1446.

14 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant Clark County reserves the right to supplement the 15 instant Answer as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

16 INTERROGATORY NO. 7:

17 IDENTIFY ALL actions YOU undertook before the enactment of Clark County Code 18 § 16.13.030 to reduce the "pedestrian traffic flow problems" caused by "pedestrian congestion 19 on the pedestrian bridges" as stated in DEFENDANT Clark County's Response to Plaintiffs 20 Motion for Preliminary Injunction and Motion for Temporary Restraining Order, ECF No. 10, 21 18:19-21.

22 ANSWER:

23 Objection. The instant Interrogatory is objectionable to the to the extent it presupposes
24 that Clark County or the Clark County Board of County Commissioners had a duty to take 25 action to reduce "pedestrian traffic flow problems" or attempt to employ alternative solutions
26 for "pedestrian traffic flow problems" prior to the enactment of Clark County Code §
27 16.13.030. Defendant further objects that the instant Interrogatory is overly broad and unduly 28 burdensome as it seeks to require Defendant to identify "ALL actions" of it and its employees

1 and commissioners. Defendant further objects that the instant Interrogatory is vague and 2 ambiguous as to time. Defendant further objects that the subject information is a matter of 3 public record and is equally available to both parties. The instant Interrogatory is further
4 objectionable as it is not proportional to the needs of the case. Without waiving the foregoing
5 objections and subject to the same, Defendant answers as follows:

6 To the extent it is responsive to Plaintiffs' Interrogatory, Clark County directs Plaintiffs
7 to the legislative record and pedestrian bridge studies and manuals disclosed in Defendant
8 Clark County's Initial Disclosure and Production of Documents per FRCP 26(a)(1) and all
9 supplements thereto including, but not limited to, bates CC 001 to CC 032, CC 033 to CC 070,
10 CC 071 to CC 126, CC 127 to CC 131, CC 132 to CC 139, CC 140 to CC 145, CC 253 to CC
11 823, CC 824 to CC 973, CC 974 to CC 1163, CC 1164 to CC 1206, CC 1207 to CC 1383, CC
12 1405 to CC 1418, CC 1419 to CC 1427, CC 1428 to CC 1437, and CC 1438 to CC 1446.

13 The aforementioned record confirms that for decades the State of Nevada and Clark
14 County have conducted studies on pedestrian traffic and safety and have taken affirmative 15 steps to improve the flow of traffic and to protect pedestrians by, among other things, removing 16 obstructions, improving lighting, widening sidewalks, increasing shade, adding traffic
17 bollards, changing to more pedestrian-friendly infrastructure, constructing pedestrian bridges, 18 enacting ordinances, and considering enacting potential legislation to further these aims. The 19 enactment of Clark County Code § 16.13.030 is only the latest step in a long history of action
20 aimed at reducing pedestrian traffic flow problems on the Las Vegas Strip and Resort Corridor
21 by Nevada governmental entities to promote public safety and support the economic viability
22 of Nevada's primary tourist destination.

23 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant Clark County reserves the right to supplement the 24 instant Answer as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

25 INTERROGATORY NO. 8:

26 DESCRIBE the original "parameters for the pedestrian bridge design" as referenced in 27 Clark County Code§ 16.13.010, including but not limited to IDENTIFYING ALL of the 28 original parameters, IDENTIFYING ALL FACTS relied upon to determine the original

1 parameters, IDENTIFYING ALL individuals involved in the creation of the original
2 parameters, IDENTIFYING how the original parameters had been enforced before Clark
3 County Code § 16.13.030 was enacted, and IDENTIFYING ANY DOCUMENT, along with 4 ANY relevant page and line citation, that DESCRIBES the original parameters for the
5 PEDESTRIAN BRIDGES.

6 ANSWER:

7       Objection. Defendant objects to the extent that Plaintiffs' Interrogatory calls for legal
8 conclusions and is comprised of discrete subparts. The instant Interrogatory is further 9 objectionable to the extent that it calls for a line-by-line explanation of an ordinance and/or 10 the plain meaning and common definition of words equally available to both parties.
11 Defendant further objects to the extent the instant Interrogatory seeks to impermissibly
12 establish legislators' subjective motives, opinions or knowledge protected under the 13 deliberative process and legislative privileges in First Amendment challenges such is the 14 instant case. See, e.g., City of Las Vegas v. Foley, 747 F.2d 1294, 1298 (9th Cir. 1984).
15 Inquiries for First Amendment purposes are strictly limited to the facial effect of the ordinance
16 upon freedom of expression, not upon the legislative bodies' subjective intent or individual

18 indicators of illicit purpose which are not present here. Id; see also Colacurcio v. City of Kent,
19 163 F.3d 545, 552 (9th Cir. 1998). Defendant further objects to the extent the instant
20 Interrogatory is overly broad and unduly burdensome as it requires Clark County to 21 "IDENTIFY[...] ALL FACTS." Clark County further objects to the extent the instant
22 Interrogatory is premature and seeks expert testimony. An expert report will be disclosed in 23 accordance with the Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order in effect in the instant case. Without 24 waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant answers as follows:

25       To the extent it is responsive to Plaintiffs' Interrogatory, Clark County directs Plaintiffs
26 to the legislative record and pedestrian bridge studies and manuals disclosed in Defendant
27 Clark County's Initial Disclosure and Production of Documents per FRCP 26(a)(1) and all
28 supplements thereto including, but not limited to, bates CC 987 ("Amend the relevant

1 provisions of Chapter 16.11 to clarify that pedestrian bridges are for the prompt and safe
2 movement of pedestrians and that, like crosswalks, stopping and standing on pedestrian 3 bridges are prohibited.”), CC 1118 (“The pedestrian bridges have constrained widths and are 4 an integral part of the pedestrian walkway system. Based upon the observed pedestrian 5 volumes, and walkway LOS, it is appropriate to designate the pedestrian bridges as no-
6 obstruction zones. Pedestrian bridges should be maintained free of any obstructions, including
7 obstructions like trash enclosures. In addition the areas on and around stair landings, elevator 8 waiting areas, along with escalator approach and departure landing zones should also be 9 maintained free of any obstructions.”), CC 1118 (“Pedestrian bridge escalators and elevators

11 to have these facilities be fully operational during holiday weekends. The capacity of the 12 pedestrian bridges is severely impacted when the escalators are not functioning.”), CC 1122
13 (“Study the feasibility of a pedestrian bridge at this location to eliminate the at-grade
14 pedestrian crossing.”), CC 1197 (“Pedestrian bridges should be maintained free of any 15 obstructions, as well as escalator and elevator approach, and departure landing zones. It is 16 appropriate at times to designate pedestrian bridges as no-obstruction zones”), CC 1199
17 (“Construct pedestrian bridge systems to eliminate at-grade pedestrian crossings at locations
18 with high demand.”), CC 1334 (“The pedestrian bridges are an integral part of the pedestrian
19 walkway system, but have constrained widths. Based upon the observed pedestrian volumes
20 and walkway LOS, it is appropriate at times to designate pedestrian bridges as no-obstruction
21 zones. Pedestrian bridges should be maintained free of any obstructions, whether permanent 22 or non-permanent in nature. In addition, the areas on and around stair landings, elevator 23 waiting areas, as well as escalator approach, and departure landing zones should also be 24 maintained free of any obstructions (permanent or nonpermanent).”), CC 1335 (“Construct

3 INTERROGATORY NO. 9:

4 IDENTIFY ALL FACTS YOU were aware of at the time of the passage of Clark
5 County Code § 16.13.030 that "pedestrian bridges create a unique opportunity for criminal 6 disorder" as stated in Clark County Code § 16.13.010, including but not limited to:

- 7 • DESCRIBING how "a sidewalk . . . has a greater ability to avoid disorder" than the 8 PEDESTRIAN BRIDGES as stated in Clark County Code § 16.13.010;
- 9 • DESCRIBING how YOU monitor instances of criminal disorder on PEDESTRIAN 10 BRIDGES and grade-level sidewalks;
- 11 • DESCRIBING how YOU determined the difference between "calls for law 12 enforcement services" and "service calls for disorderly offenses" as stated in Clark 13 County Code §16.13.010; and
- 14 • IDENTIFYING ANY DOCUMENT, along with ANY relevant page and line citation, 15 that DESCRIBES the increased likelihood of criminal disorder occurring on the

17 ANSWER:

18 Objection. Defendant objects to the extent that Plaintiffs' Interrogatory calls for legal 19 conclusions and is comprised of discrete subparts. The instant Interrogatory is further 20 objectionable to the extent that it calls for a line-by-line explanation of an ordinance and/or 21 the plain meaning and common definition of words equally available to both parties.
22 Defendant further objects to the extent the instant Interrogatory seeks to impermissibly
23 establish legislators' subjective motives, opinions or knowledge protected under the 24 deliberative process and legislative privileges in First Amendment challenges such is the 25 instant case. See, e.g., City of Las Vegas v. Foley, 747 F.2d 1294, 1298 (9th Cir. 1984).
26 Inquiries for First Amendment purposes are strictly limited to the facial effect of the ordinance

28 legislators' subjective understanding of the language of an ordinance absent objective

1 indicators of illicit purpose which are not present here. Id; see also Colacurcio v. City of Kent,
2 163 F.3d 545, 552 (9th Cir. 1998). Defendant further objects to the extent the instant
3 Interrogatory is overly broad and unduly burdensome as it requires Clark County to
4 “IDENTIFY ALL FACTS.” Clark County further objects to the extent the instant
5 Interrogatory is premature and seeks expert testimony. An expert report will be disclosed in
6 accordance with the Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order in effect in the instant case. Without
7 waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant answers as follows:

8 To the extent it is responsive to Plaintiffs’ Interrogatory, Clark County directs Plaintiffs
9 to the legislative record and pedestrian bridge studies and manuals disclosed in Defendant
10 Clark County’s Initial Disclosure and Production of Documents per FRCP 26(a)(1) and all
11 supplements thereto including, but not limited to, bates CC 001 to CC 032, CC 033 to CC 070,
12 CC 071 to CC 126, CC 127 to CC 131, CC 132 to CC 139, CC 140 to CC 145, CC 824 to CC
13 973, CC 974 to CC 1163, CC 1164 to CC 1206, CC 1207 to CC 1383, CC 1405 to CC 1418, 14 CC 1419 to CC 1427, CC 1428 to CC 1437, and CC 1438 to CC 1446.

15 In regard to the discrete subparts contained in Plaintiffs’ instant Interrogatory, the 16 legislative record and public documents cited support the following responses:

- 17 • Sidewalks are better able to avoid disorder because of their structural 18 differences. In cases of panic or disorder, pedestrians on the street level may 19 avoid hazards by stepping into the adjacent road or landscaping or by entering 20 one of any number of properties abutting the street; whereas with pedestrian 21 bridges, which feature structural choke points, constrained widths, and highly 22 elevated above-ground construction, avoiding panic, disorder and harm are 23 substantially more difficult.
- 24 • Defendant periodically conducts traffic surveys and studies of traffic on the Las 25 Vegas Strip to assess the sufficiency of resources and infrastructure and to 26 receive recommendations for potential ways to improve traffic flows and safety 27 on the Las Vegas Strip. Defendant also periodically receives presentations from 28 LVMPD about the state of criminal disorder on the Las Vegas Strip.

- 1 • The instant discrete subpart of the Interrogatory seeks to impermissibly establish 2 legislators’ subjective motives, opinions or knowledge protected under the 3 deliberative process and legislative privileges in First Amendment challenges
4 such is the instant case. See, e.g., City of Las Vegas v. Foley, 747 F.2d 1294, 5 1298 (9th Cir. 1984).
- 6 • See the legislative record cited above; particularly at bates CC 071 to CC 126,
7 CC 127 to CC 131, CC 132 to CC 139, CC 140 to CC 145, and CC 1428 to CC
8 1437.

9 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant Clark County reserves the right to supplement the
10 instant Answer as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

11 The foregoing Answers to Plaintiffs’ Interrogatories are made in response to questions
12 for legal conclusions and/or information based on the face of the legislative history, public 13 record, and the language of the subject ordinance and, accordingly, no separate verification is 14 provided.

Good evening Joel,

As previously discussed, we are requesting a meet and confer to discuss Plaintiff’s First Request for Production, Plaintiff’s First Set of Interrogatories, the privilege asserted in your First Supplemental Disclosures, and Plaintiff’s proposed First Amended Complaint. We request to meet by December 18, 2024, if at all possible, to ensure that we have enough time to file a motion for leave to amend prior to the current deadline on January 3, 2024.

To ensure a productive meet and confer, I have provided replies to your discovery responses. I provided some general replies to objections that were raised multiple times in your responses; I also provided specific replies to the interrogatory responses and production responses. I also provided a specific reply to the privilege asserted in the log provided in your First Supplemental Disclosures.

These replies are meant to make our meet-and-confer more productive either by asking for clarification or clarifying our position where I believe it is possible to avoid court intervention. If after reviewing these replies you have additional information, such as legal authorities, you believe we should review to prior to a meet-and-confer, please let me know.

I have not addressed every objection raised in your responses, nor have I provided every legal argument we might raise to challenge an objection or refusal to provide documents. We do not waive any legal rights, including the right litigate a complete respond to any and all objections, in providing these replies for the purposes for our meet-and-confer.

I. First Amended Complaint

I have attached our proposed First Amended Complaint (clean and redlined copies) to this email. With the amendments, we are adding an additional plaintiff, supplementing with additional facts now available, restructuring the complaint for clarity, and removing the ADA claim dismissed by the Court. If there are any specific concerns you would like to discuss at the meet and confer, please let me know.

II. General replies

Many of the responses to our requests and interrogatories involved the same objections or substantive responses. For ease of use, I am providing generally applicable replies here. I reference some again when I discuss specific responses below.

Objection or response	Reply
“Inquiries for First Amendment purposes are strictly limited to the facial	Colacurcio v. City of Kent , which you cite, directly contradicts this position. “We will look to the full record to determine whether evidence indicates that the purpose of the ordinance is to suppress

effect of the ordinance . . .”	speech or ameliorate secondary effects. In so doing, we will rely on all objective indicators of intent, including the face of the statute, the effect of the statute, comparison to prior law, facts surrounding enactment, the stated purpose, and the record of proceedings.” Colacurcio v. City of Kent, 163 F.3d 545, 552 (9th Cir. 1998) (emphasis added). We are not limited to the language of CCC 16.13.030 during discovery for facial challenges, All “objective indicators” related to Clark County’s intent are relevant. Plaintiff Summers has also raised an as applied challenge to the ordinance, as the Court recognized in its order denying your motion to dismiss.
Assertions of the “deliberative process and legislative privilege” with citation to Foley.	City of Las Vegas v. Foley, 747 F.2d 1294, 1298 (9th Cir. 1998) does not discuss either the deliberative or legislative privilege. None of the interrogatories ask for information related to internal County processes in drafting CCC 16.13.030 (i.e. the deliberative process). Information related to a final determination is not protected. The privilege also does not protect information and documents used in drafting documents other than the policy itself (e.g. materials related reports by third parties that were disclosed to the public as documents separate from the bill itself).
Interrogatory responses that answer by referring to a list of documents, such as disclosed documents and/or dictionaries, without providing an answer that is “complete in itself” to the interrogatory	An interrogatory cannot be answered by referring to other documents. “An answer to an interrogatory must be responsive to the question. It should be complete in itself and should not refer to the pleadings, or to depositions or other documents, or to other interrogatories, at least where such references make it impossible to determine whether an adequate answer has been given without an elaborate comparison of answers. ... A party’s interrogatory response may refer to business records or abstracts only if the burden of deriving or ascertaining the answer will be substantially the same for either party.” Reflex Media, Inc. v. Richard Easton Ltd., No. 2:20-cv-00051-GMN-EJY, 2022 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 121593, at *7-8 (D. Nev. July 8, 2022)
Objections asserting that a request is “vague and ambiguous as to time”	The interrogatories and the requests for production provide the default time frame (unless otherwise stated) in their “Instructions” sections for all discovery requests. The only exception to this default time frame in the interrogatories and requests for production provided in Plaintiffs’ first set would be requests, such as Interrogatory No. 8, that ask for the “original” parameters for the pedestrian bridges as the first pedestrian bridge was built prior to 2014.

Objection that request calls for a “line-by-line explanation” of the ordinance.	I am unfamiliar with this objection and could not find a legal authority describing its contours. Please provide a legal authority if available.
Assertions of privilege in response to requests for production not reflected in the privilege log such as deliberative process privilege and legislative privilege.	Our discovery order requires that parties “provide a log for any material claimed to be privileged or protected by the work product doctrine (or material that is withheld for any reason). [ECF No. 54] at 5:3–6. You assert privilege in response to many of the requests for production where you do not disclose documents. You also assert privileges that do not appear anywhere in your privilege log. If you are in possession of documents that are responsive to our requests for production but are withholding those documents due to privilege or other reason, the privilege log must include those documents and the basis for withholding them.

III. Responses to Interrogatories

Interrogatory	Reply to response
1	Objections <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● “Legal conclusion” – “disorderly offenses” is not in the legally operative language in CCC 16.13.030. It is a term the County uses to explain the purpose behind the ban imposed by CCC 16.13.030. Plaintiffs are entitled to know the scope of the County’s stated purpose in passing the ordinance to determine whether the stated purpose is a legitimate basis to burden First Amendment activity.</li> <li>● "Line-by-line explanation" – See Section I.</li> <li>● "Legislator's subjective intent" – The interrogatory does not inquire into an individual legislator's intent. It is asking for Clark County to explain what "disorderly offenses" are because the County used the term to explain why it passed 16.13.030.</li> <li>● Deliberative and legislative privilege – See Section I.</li> <li>● “Inquiries for First Amendment purposes are strictly limited to the facial effect of the ordinance . . .” – See Section II, specifically Colacurcio’s statement that the Court looks at “all objective indicators of intent” including “stated purpose”.</li> </ul> Substantive <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Answer is insufficient considering that Clark County states that it passed the ordinance to prevent “disorderly offenses”; what activities the County intended to prevent is relevant in determining whether this purpose was legitimate.</li> <li>● An interrogatory cannot be answered by referring to other documents. Those facts are what are relevant as the County could not have relied on facts it did not have to assert that “captive audiences” are a legitimate concern.</li> <li>● “Inquiries for First Amendment purposes are strictly limited to the facial effect of the ordinance . . .” – See Section II, specifically Colacurcio’s statement that the Court looks at “all objective indicators of intent”. The interrogatory asks for facts surrounding the enactment of 16.13.030, which is explicitly allowed in Colacurcio.</li> </ul>

	Substantive response <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● When the government claims that a law that burdens First Amendment activity serves a particular purpose, it must provide specific facts to show that the purpose was a legitimate concern.</li> <li>● The interrogatory does not ask for Clark County to “marital evidence of every wrongdoing” – the interrogatory asks Clark County for facts that it is aware of or can become aware of after a reasonable inquiry.</li> <li>● An interrogatory cannot be answered by referring to other documents. See above for explanation.</li> <li>● If Clark County is unaware of any specific instances where a “captive audience” existed on a pedestrian bridge or any facts indicating that a “captive audience” occurred on the bridges, it must say so.</li> </ul>

82	Concerns regarding the objections asserted: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● There is no legal authority provided to claim that this request is premature. If available, please provide legal authority.</li> <li>● The request is specifically related to the report provided by Dr. Souza to the County in support of the passage of CCC 16.13.030, not a report he has prepared for this litigation pursuant to FRCP 26.</li> <li>● According to the documents you have disclosed, Dr. Souza had not been retained to provide expert testimony in this or any other litigation according to the agreement he signed with the County. See CC 1397 – CC 1404. If another agreement was in effect while Dr. Souza worked on CC 132–CC 139, please provide that document. document and the privilege asserted.

- The legal authority cited (Transgender L. Ctr.) also does not appear to extend the privilege to third parties from outside the agency.
- According to CC 132-CC 139, Souza was not hired to draft the policy at issue.

See also Section IV related to privilege log assertions.

V. Privilege Log

In asserting privileges in your privilege log, you have only asserted “Communications with an expert witness retained in anticipation of litigation not subject to an exception. See, e.g., Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(b)(4)(C); Republic of Ecuador v. Mackay, 742 F.3d 860, 869 (9th Cir. 2014). In regards to the documents you have considered responsive to Plaintiffs’ requests, it appears that you have only asserted privilege in regards to the communications between Williams Souza and Clark County staff prior to the passage of CCC 16.13.030.

According to our review of the documents disclosed, it appears that those communications occurred prior to this suit and even prior to the passage of CCC 16.13.030. It appears that you are asserting this privilege based upon the relation formed through the agreement provided pursuant to CC 1397–CC 1404. According to the documents you have disclosed, Dr. Souza had not been retained to provide expert testimony in this or any other litigation according to the agreement he signed with the County. See CC 1397–CC 1404. If another agreement was in effect while Dr. Souza worked on CC 132–CC 139, please provide that document. We are unaware of any legal authority that would render a document privileged under FRCP 26 through a testifying expert relationship that formed after the document was created.

Re: _____, Case No. 2:24-cv-00334-JAD-NJK

Counsel:

Please allow the instant correspondence to serve as Clark County's response to your objections to its responses to written discovery and your request for a meet and confer.

Burden in Discovery

First, it must be noted that the party seeking discovery has the primary duty to demonstrate that the evidence they seek is relevant and discoverable. _____, 314 F.R.D. 664, 667 (D. Ariz. 2016); _____, 343 F.R.D. 71, 81 (D. Ariz. 2022).

Rule 26(b)(1) provides:

Parties may obtain discovery regarding any nonprivileged matter that is relevant to any party's claim or defense and proportional to the needs of the case, considering the importance of the issues at stake in the action, the amount in controversy, the parties' relative access to relevant information, the parties' resources, the importance of the discovery in resolving the issues, and whether the burden or expense of the proposed discovery outweighs its likely benefit.

Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1) (emphasis added).

Questions of Law Require no Fact Finding

“The determination of whether a statute is constitutional is a question of law, which this court reviews de novo.” _____, 125 Nev. 502, 509, 217 P.3d 546, 551 (2009) (citing _____, 122 Nev. 289, 292, 129 P.3d 682, 684 (2006)) (emphasis added); _____, 270 F.R.D. 16, 19 (D.D.C. 2010) (“Because Shelby County brings only a facial challenge to the [Voter Registration Act], discovery into that claim is unwarranted.”) (emphasis added); _____, No. 3:22-CV-00265-SLG, 2023 WL 2914395, at *5 (D. Alaska Apr. 12, 2023) (“Mr. Briggs’ facial challenge to the constitutionality of [statute] is a pure question of law and Mr. Briggs has not identified any discoverable facts that would be relevant to resolving this question.”) (emphasis added); _____, 151 F.3d 1129, 1131 (9th Cir. 1998) (recognizing that “[t]he district court concluded that Pacific did not need to undertake discovery because the issue in this case involved a purely legal question.”) (emphasis added); _____, 235 U.S. 23, 26, 35 S.Ct. 2, 59 L.Ed. 105 (1914) (A statute “is not to be upset upon hypothetical and unreal possibilities, if it would be good upon the facts as they are”); _____, 552 U.S. 442, 455, 128 S. Ct. 1184, 1193–94, 170 L. Ed. 2d 151 (2008) (“Because respondents brought their suit as a facial challenge, we have no evidentiary record against which to assess their assertions that voters will be confused.”); _____, 270 F.R.D. 16, 19 (D.D.C. 2010) (“Because Shelby County brings only a facial challenge to the VRA, discovery into that claim is unwarranted.”) (emphasis added); _____, 362 F. Supp. 2d 327, 337 (D.D.C. 2005), aff’d sub nom. Gen. Elec. Co. v. Jackson, 610 F.3d 110 (D.C. Cir. 2010) (“a facial challenge to the text of a statute does not typically require discovery for resolution because the challenge focuses on the language of the statute itself.”) (emphasis added); _____, 360 F.3d 1274, 1282 (11th Cir. 2004) (“When analyzing a facial challenge, we must analyze the statute as written.”); _____, 324 F. Supp. 2d 231, 232 (D. Me. 2004) (“discovery or an ‘evidentiary showing’ on the effect of the challenged provisions of [a law] is not necessary to a ruling on a facial preemption challenge.”); _____, No. 1:22-CV-859-RP, 2023 WL 8856052, at *14 (W.D. Tex. Dec. 21, 2023) (“For this reason, district courts have commonly held that parties do not need discovery to defend a law’s facial validity.”); _____, No. 2:19-CV-50, 2019 WL 13020440, at *2 (S.D. Ga. Aug. 5, 2019) (“These remaining arguments represent facial attacks which likely will not require additional discovery to resolve.”).

Questions of law—like those raised in Plaintiffs’ complaint—are not questions of fact, nor are they mixed questions of fact and law. Questions of law can be resolved by the Court on the face of the ordinance and other matters of public record, including the legislative history, of which the Court may take judicial notice.

Given the foregoing, Plaintiffs’ overly burdensome requests for production and interrogatories are both irrelevant and disproportionate to the needs of the case to the extent they seek anything beyond objective data and the legislative record.

In determining the constitutional validity of a statute or ordinance, the court “may only look to its terms, to the intent expressed by Members of Congress who voted its passage, and to the existence or nonexistence of legitimate explanations for its apparent effect.” _____, 433 U.S. 425, 484, 97 S. Supp. 3d 124, 140 (S.D.N.Y. 2017) ([The government defendants] correctly point out that, in other First Amendment cases, numerous courts have recognized that the bill text, legislative record and other public materials are the primary source for discerning the governmental interest in the legislation (regardless of the standard of review applied).”); _____, 458 U.S. 747, 757–59, 102 S.Ct. 3348, 73 L.Ed.2d 1113 (1982) (relying on the legislative history and other public sources as supplying the governments' basis for enacting the challenged law and holding “[w]e shall not second-guess this legislative judgment”);

_____, 747 F.2d 1294, 1297 (9th Cir. 1984) (for a First Amendment case, “[t]he relevant governmental interest is determined by objective indicators as taken from the face of the statute, the effect of the statute, comparison to prior law, facts surrounding enactment of the statute, the stated purpose, and the record of proceedings.”) (emphasis added); _____, No. 97-cv-620 (SS) (THK), 1998 WL 477961, at *5 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 13, 1998) (“[a]s is traditionally done, inquiry into the constitutionality of [the challenged provision] can be conducted on the basis of the statutory scheme, the legislative history, [and] other publicly available material ...”) (emphasis added);

_____, No. 4:08-cv-555 (MCR) (CAS), 2013 WL 4838764, at *4–5 (N.D. Fla. Sept. 11, 2013) (“Legislative history is the primary source for determining legislative intent”) (emphasis added); _____, 582 F.3d 1, 13–13 (D.C. Cir. 2009) (courts may look to the legislative history to discern the government's interest, but should only do so when the statutory text itself is ambiguous); Legislative Purpose and Federal Constitutional Adjudication, 83 Harv. L. Rev. 1887, 1903 (1970) (“Examining motives, it is said, involves inquiry into the subjective reasons for legislative action; purpose, on the other hand, denotes what the legislature sought to achieve, and not why. Purpose is derived from the terms of a statute, its operation, and the legal and practical context in which it was enacted. To determine purpose, the court may consider both the language of the statute and general public knowledge about the evil which the legislature sought to remedy; prior law; accompanying legislation; enacted statements of purpose; formal public pronouncements; and internal legislative history.”) (emphasis added);

_____, 115 Wash. 2d 635, 640, 802 P.2d 1333, 1337 (1990) (“Facts are not essential for consideration of a facial challenge to a statute or ordinance on First Amendment grounds. Constitutional analysis is made upon the language of the ordinance or statute itself.”) (footnotes omitted).

Accordingly, the case law is clear that first amendment constitutional challenges such as the instant lawsuit can be decided on the face of the statute and other publicly available information and facts. Therefore, any written discovery which seeks information that is not a matter of public record is per se irrelevant and disproportionate to the needs of the case, which is to say nothing of other forms of privilege which may apply like legislative and deliberative process privileges.

The Court's Position on the Party's Relative Burdens

In its Order [51] denying Plaintiffs' Motions for Preliminary Injunction and for TRO and granting in part and denying in part Defendant Clark County's Motion to Dismiss, the Court provided clear guidance on the relative burdens of the parties and the positions of the parties that required additional factual support before the Court could properly rule on them.

In the Court's view, the Plaintiffs' burden is "to demonstrate 'from the text of [the law] and from actual fact' that substantial overbreadth exists." [ECF No. 51] at 25:15-17 (citing Illinois v. Gates, 487 U.S. 1, 14 (1988)) (emphasis added). Actual fact of overbreadth can be determined from the amount of area affected by the pedestrian flow zone ordinance versus areas that are unaffected and identifying the type of speech, if any, that may require stopping or standing. Non-public e-mail communications or requests for the County to define words in the ordinance are irrelevant to Plaintiffs satisfying their burden in this matter.

As it pertains to the County, the Court indicated that the County's duty is to "demonstrate that the recited harms are real, not merely conjectural, and that the regulation will in fact alleviate these harms in a direct and material way." [ECF No. 51] at 30:9-11 (citing Illinois v. Gates, 68 F.4th at 443); Illinois v. Gates at 32:10-11 ("While the burden on the County is not heavy, it requires more than the County offers here.) (emphasis added). Again, the County's burden is satisfied by the issues identified in the legislative history on the need for the subject ordinance and related legislation and the logical connection between the subject ordinance and those issues.

Therefore, it is clear, not only from case law, but also from the Court's own order, the issues raised in Plaintiff's complaint may be resolved with minimal additional information which can be found in the text of the ordinance, the legislative history, and matters of public fact.

Motion for Protective Order and Interlocutory Appeal Pursuant to § 1292(b)

Given the scope of relevant discovery in this matter, the County was shocked to receive Plaintiffs' 82 requests for production, which included multiple discrete subparts, and which would place a heavy burden on the County and its resources. What's worse, however, is that these requests sought materials which are neither relevant nor admissible in this matter and which are disproportionate to the needs of the case.

In the past five years the only time the County has seen this many requests for production was in opioid litigation which included numerous defendants and a complex factual history covering decades and litigation over a land-use decision which was based on more than 20 years of interactions between the property owner and the County and multiple prior lawsuits. In light of this, Plaintiffs' discovery feels more like a bad faith abuse of process than a genuine attempt to conduct relevant discovery on a question of law.

Plaintiffs' interrogatories were similarly problematic—impermissibly seeking legal conclusions, definitions of words undefined in ordinance, and the subjective motives of the legislators who passed the subject ordinance.

If Plaintiffs elect to file a motion to compel responses to their overly burdensome written discovery, the County intends to file a countermotion for protective order and to seek fees and costs associated with responding to Plaintiffs' motion because the County can find no case law supporting that Plaintiffs would be entitled to the discovery they're seeking in other First Amendment challenges to the constitutionality of a statute or ordinance.

Furthermore, if the Court for whatever reason, denies Defendant's motion for protective order—the County will seek interlocutory appeal pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1292(b) because whether the documents Plaintiffs seek are discoverable or relevant is the type of issue in litigation where the bell can't be unringed and, given the extensive case law cited above, the County believes there is substantial ground for difference of opinion on this question of law warranting review by the Ninth Circuit. See, e.g., Wright v. City of Los Angeles, 643 F.3d 681, 688 (9th Cir. 2011) (28 U.S.C. § 1292(b)).

First Amended Complaint

The foregoing issues notwithstanding, Clark County is eager to see this case resolved on the merits and, if an appeal lies, to see that the appeal proceed on the merits of the case and not some procedural aspect of discovery.

In reviewing Plaintiffs' proposed First Amended Complaint, the County has some concerns. First, Ms. McAllister's only claims in the case pertained to her potential ADA claims and now those claims are dismissed. It seems reasonable to amend the caption and the complaint to remove reference to Ms. McAllister as a party moving forward.

Given the representations in the Complaint and some independent research, it is upon information and belief that Mr. Summers no longer resides in Las Vegas and has not been back to Las Vegas since the summer. It is upon information and belief that he is employed full-time in Chicago and intends to reside there hereafter. Accordingly, it is not clear that Mr. Summers can satisfy the requirements to serve as a Plaintiff in this matter either.

Rather than file a 12(b)(1) motion to dismiss Mr. Summers and opposing Plaintiffs' motion for leave to amend the complaint, insisting instead that a new complaint be filed, the County would be willing to stipulate amending the complaint and substituting the current parties with the new party subject to certain conditions if Plaintiffs are amenable.

We look forward to the opportunity to address these concerns the meet and confer and hope that we can come to an agreement on these issues without the need to involve the Court in the process.

Best regards,

Re: McCallister et al vs. Clark County, U.S. District Court Case Number: 2:24-cv-00334

Follow-up from 12/19/24 telephonic meet and confer

Hello Joel:

I am following up from our meet and confer on December 19, 2024, to memorialize the discussion, which followed our meet and confer letters regarding the County's responses to written discovery and our request that you stipulate to the filing of our proposed First Amended Complaint. Thank you for the time you spent discussing these issues. Please let me know as soon as possible—and no later than December 30, 2024—if you believe anything below is inaccurate or if the County has changed its positions taken on December 19, 2024 (and responses and prior correspondence).

In light of the unresolved issues set forth below and the Parties drastically divergent positions, Plaintiffs are filing a Motion to Compel seeking supplementation and associated sanctions, including but not limited to fees and costs. Plaintiffs also reserve all other rights, such as the right to seek evidentiary sanctions for nondisclosure and failure to cooperate with discovery.

I. Timing and Attendance

The teleconference lasted from 1 PM until 2:40 PM. You and Timothy Allen were present on behalf of the Defendant. Maggie McLetchie, Jacob Smith, Tatiana Smith, and I were present on behalf of the Plaintiffs.

II. First Amended Complaint

We first briefly discussed your concerns related to the proposed First Amended Complaint. You agreed to stipulate to the proposed amended complaint if the stipulation made clear the Plaintiffs were not seeking damages as a remedy pursuant to that complaint. We agreed to that condition, and the parties thereafter agreed to a stipulation. Thank you for resolving those issues with us and helping avoid motion practice on this issue.

III. Unresolved Disputes Regarding Specific Discovery

The following issues regarding specific issues were discussed during our meet and confer, but we did not resolve any of the disputes detailed in our meet ad confer letter. The County's positions were informed by some of the global positions it took, discussed below (IV).

a. Scope of discovery related to the County's interests in passing CCC 16.13.030

All parties agree that whether the County had a real substantial interest in passing CCC 16.13.030 is relevant to this matter. However, parties continue to dispute what information is relevant to that inquiry. The County believes that the relevant information is limited what the legislators formally knew at the time they passed CCC 16.13.030 and is reflected on the record, meaning that discovery is limited to (1) the language of CCC 16.13, and (2) the official record related to the passage of CCC 16.13 (i.e. CCC 16.13's legislative history). This would include testimony before the County Commission and documents formally filed before the Commission during the legislative process but would not include any other documents. The County's position is that the accuracy of the testimony or documentation in the record is irrelevant; rather the issue is whether the County identified a substantial interest justifying the burden CCC 16.13.030 places upon First Amendment activity and that interest is supported by evidence on the record related to CCC 16.13.030.

Plaintiffs believe that they have the right to meaningfully litigate as to whether the County's evidence that it has asserted meets its burden by challenging, inter alia, whether the interests asserted by the County in passing CCC 16.13.030 were in reality issues that needed to be addressed as well as the fit between the asserted harms and the ordinance. For example, Plaintiffs believe that they may use documents and other information not necessarily presented before the Commission to show that the Bridges did not have issues related to traffic congestion at the time the County passed CCC 16.13.030. Plaintiffs believe that they are also entitled to challenge the accuracy of the information presented before the Commission, and that Commission may not rely on inaccurate information in passing CCC 16.13.030 even if the information appeared accurate on its face in the record. Likewise, the County cannot rely on pretext to violate the Constitution.

b. Interrogatories asking for County to define terms used in CCC 16.13

In their interrogatories, Plaintiffs asked the County to clarify a number of terms related to the County's statements in CCC 16.13.010 related to the County's stated purposes in passing CCC 16.13.030. During the meet and confer, Plaintiffs specifically asserted that terms such as "disorderly offenses", "criminal disorder", and "captive audiences" were part of factual statement made in CCC 16.13.010 related to the interests asserted by the County to justify the passage of CCC 16.13.030, and that the Plaintiffs were entitled to clarification regarding the scope of these stated purposes in passing CCC 16.13.030.

The County stated that these requests were asking for legal conclusions from counsel, and that the County could not provide a more specific definition than that provided in the Clark County Code related to CCC 16.13. The County explained that it could not define the terms used in CCC 16.13 because the individual County Commissioners may have different understandings of what the words meant, and the County could not replace the Commissioners' understanding of the terms with its own.

Though we conferred at length regarding the scope of discovery related to this issue, we did not resolve this dispute.

c. Intended enforcement of CCC 16.13.030

In relation to Plaintiffs Interrogatory #4, Plaintiffs believe that how the County intends for CCC 16.13.030 to be enforced, including what activities should be excluded from enforcement, is relevant to Plaintiffs First Amendment and Fourteenth Amendment claims.

First, the County's position is that it is not in a position to answer this interrogatory because the agency that enforces CCC 16.13.030 (LVMPD) does not fall within the County's jurisdiction. Second, the County does believe that this inquiry is irrelevant; the County believes that the relevant inquiry is how the County Commission objectively intended for CCC 16.13.030 to be enforced at the time of passage (as in, what was specifically provided on the record at the time CCC 16.13.030 was passed), not how entities have enforced or intended for CCC 16.13.030 since passage.

IV. Other issues

The following issues, which animated the Parties' positions set forth above, were also discussed during our meet and confer. Specific requests were also discussed by Plaintiffs as examples of discovery requests that unquestionably fell within the scope of discovery contemplated.

We talked at length but did not resolve any of the disputes.

a. Overall scope of discovery

Both Parties presented their positions about the scope of discovery.

Plaintiffs believe that they have the right to meaningfully litigate as to whether the County's evidence that it has asserted meets its burden by challenging, inter alia, whether the interests asserted by the County in passing CCC 16.13.030 were in reality issues that needed to be addressed as well as the fit between the asserted harms and the ordinance. For example, Plaintiffs believe that they may use documents and other information not necessarily presented before the Commission to show that the Bridges did not have issues related to traffic congestion at the time the County passed CCC 16.13.030. Plaintiffs believe that they are also entitled to challenge the accuracy of the information presented before the Commission, and that Commission may not rely on inaccurate information in passing CCC 16.13.030-- even if the information appeared accurate on its face in the record.

Plaintiffs, in response to the County’s letter, pointed out that the County’s argument raised in its letter that it could seek interlocutory relief if ordered to produce anything further because it would be irreparable harm and a bell that could not be “unrung” was baseless since any person was likely entitled to the records under Nevada’s Public Records Act, a point the County indicated was irrelevant.

Plaintiffs discussed the Court’s Order finding the County’s prior motion to stay—which raised near identical issues as the County raised in its response to our meet and confer letter and that the County raised during the call. While the County’s motion to stay discovery, the Court “considered it to dispel the County’s misguided notion that cases involving facial challenges need no discovery at all.” (ECF No. 51, p.38:7-8.) While of course this case involves more claims than just a First Amendment facial claim, even with regard to that limited claim, the Court explained:

At a minimum, development of the factual record is needed to determine whether CCC 16.13.030’s unconstitutional applications are substantial when compared to its constitutional ones—a threshold question for plaintiffs’ facial challenges.

(Id. at 9-11 (footnote omitted).) The Court went on to point out that the case also involved an as-applied First Amendment challenge, and further explained that:

... discovery is necessary to determine (1) whether the County has met its burden to show that the ordinance responds to a real, rather than speculative, significant government interest; (2) whether the ordinance is narrowly tailored to that interest when compared to other narrower laws that prohibit similar conduct and whether the County considered alternatives that would have had a lesser impact on speech; and (3) whether ample alternatives truly exist for First Amendment activity on the Strip

(Id. at p. 38: 11-p. 39:-1 (footnote omitted).) While Plaintiffs explained that the discovery they sought was largely designed to address the issues, the County contended Plaintiffs were only entitled to the legislative record and “facts” such as the sidewalk measurements the County produced after Plaintiffs’ meet and confer letter was received, but nothing else from the County (but that Plaintiffs could search other sources such as TikTok).

We conferred at length regarding these issues regarding the scope of discovery, but we did not resolve this disputes, as also detailed above.

b. Unclear responses and County’s lack of searches; Plaintiffs’ offer to work together to alleviate burdens.

In response to Plaintiffs’ contentions that the responses did not generally make clear what was and wasn’t being provided (and provide privilege logs) and that confusion about the discovery was further compounded by the County’s reservation of rights to produce records later, the County explained that, should the Court disagree with its positions, it could then produce and rely on information not previously produced. Plaintiffs disagreed that this was a permissible approach. The County, claiming burden, also claimed it had not done searches in response to the requests, other than the legislative record and certain specific information like the sidewalk measurements.

The County had objected to many of Plaintiffs' requests for production as overbroad, and in particular requests for communications, in that they did not provide a sufficiently limited scope. Specifically, the County stated that many of the requests needed additional limitations such as specific email accounts, time periods, and/or keywords for the County to search before it could satisfy the requests.

Plaintiffs offered to work together to narrow custodians and to craft electronic discovery searches; Plaintiffs also offered to discuss potential limits on specific requests for production. The County stated that such a discussion would be premature considering the County's position regarding what information would be relevant to the Plaintiffs claims, specifically that only the ordinance's language, the legislative history, and the public record is relevant, and the Court would need to determine that other information would be relevant the Plaintiffs' claims before the County would discuss limiting the Plaintiff's requests for production. While, thus, the County refused to do so unless and until the Court granted Plaintiffs' order on their planned motion to compel, Plaintiffs disagreed that this was a permissible approach.

Plaintiffs raised related preservation issues, and while that your preservation notices have not yet been disclosed, you indicated you would check as to whether you could produce preservation notices (which you preliminarily thought was appropriate).

c. Assertion of privilege related to Professor Souza

Plaintiffs further explained that they did not believe that the expert witness privilege applied to Souza's work prior to the passage of CCC 16.13.030 and observed that Souza's retainer for that work made no reference to litigation and that the County had listed Souza as a fact witness.

The County responded that, while it had not formally retained Souza as an expert for this litigation (and indicated it would not do so unless the Court ruled in Plaintiff's favor on the related issues discussed herein), all work by Souza performed was made in anticipation of litigation as the Executive Director of the ACLU of Nevada threatened to sue the County prior to the passage of CCC 16.13.030 both in relation to that bill and similar bills. Plaintiffs contested the validity of this position.

The County did clarify that it had disclosed the factual information provided by the County to Souza and that the County did not have the documentation that Souza relied upon from other agencies such as LVMPD.

V. Agreed-upon Supplemental Response and Other Follow up

While most issues were not resolved, some progress was made (and some motion practice this avoided).

First, as noted above, the County also indicated it was inclined to disclose the preservation notice that it provided to County employees to ensure that the documents requested by Plaintiffs would be preserved during the discovery dispute but would need to check with Lisa Logsdon, County counsel. Please let us know the status.

Second, the County agreed to the following regarding Plaintiff's discovery requests, and that the County would complete supplemental responses in the manner set forth on the table below by January 9, 2025.

Discovery request	Agreed upon follow up
Interrogatory responses where the County cited to specific documents previously disclosed as responsive to the interrogatory.	The County agreed to review the interrogatory responses to determine whether it could or would clarify why the citations were responsive. If The County would provide clarification where possible.
Requests for production #1 – 17	The County agreed to follow up with the Clark County District Attorney's Office's Criminal Division to determine if that agency had responsive documents. The County observed that the Criminal Division may refuse to disclose the documents as it is typically considered separate from the rest of the County government.

Besides the follow up discussed above, the County stated that it did not intend to change its response to any other outstanding request from Plaintiffs at this time.

VI. The County's Proposed Extension

The Parties discussed potential stipulation to extend discovery deadlines. Plaintiffs believed that the stipulation was premature but was open to further discussion regarding a potential reasonable stipulation in January after the County followed upon on the requests discussed above. Please note that Plaintiffs disagree with the County's position that (other than the limited responses noted above) the County can or should wait to make appropriate responses and disclosures—or perform appropriate searches—until further Court order.

Defendant Clark County's First Supplemental Responses to Plaintiff's First Request for Production of Documents

1 COMES NOW, Defendant CLARK COUNTY (hereinafter “Defendant”), through its
2 attorney STEVEN B. WOLFSON, District Attorney, and by JOEL K. BROWNING, Deputy
3 District Attorney, and JEFFREY S. ROGAN, Deputy District Attorney, and hereby 4 supplements its responses to and objects to PLAINTIFF’S FIRST REQUEST FOR 5 PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS, pursuant to the requirements of NRCP 34, as follows:

6 REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 1:

7 ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO LVMPD Event #
8 LLV240200044159.

9 RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 1:

10 Objection. The instant Interrogatory is not reasonably calculated to lead to the 11 discovery of admissible evidence. The instant Interrogatory is further objectionable because it
12 is unduly burdensome, overly broad, and not proportional to the needs of the case. Defendant
13 further objects to the instant Interrogatory because it is not the custodian of records for 14 LVMPD records, which are equally available to both parties. Without waiving the foregoing
15 objections and subject to the same, Defendant answers as follows:

16 Clark County has no records responsive to this request in its possession.

17 On or around December 19, 2024, the parties conducted a meet and confer
18 wherein Plaintiffs’ counsel inquired after case files held by the District Attorney’s Office
19 for the above-referenced citation. Counsel for Defendants explained that while the Public
20 Defender’s Office, the District Attorney’s Office, and the Clark County Justice Courts
21 are nominally funded by Clark County, they are separate branches of government led 22 by elected and/or appointed officials who independently determine their own respective 23 document retention and disclosure policies. Counsel for Defendants represented that 24 there is a firewall in place between the Civil Division, which represents Clark County in 25 this action, and the Criminal Division, which would be responsible for prosecuting cases
26 on behalf of the State of Nevada, and that the Civil Division did not have access to the 27 requested case files. Defendants further represented that requests to these entities
28 directly would likely be the most productive method for obtaining the records sought,

1 but indicated that it believed requests to the Public Defender’s Office or District
2 Attorney’s Office would likely run into attorney-client privilege/work product doctrine
3 objections for the respective case files and that subpoenas to the Justice Court or 4 LVMPD would be most likely to result in the production of the sought after documents
5 as they were the custodian of records for citations and misdemeanor dockets.

6 The foregoing notwithstanding, in attempt to work towards a resolution of this
7 discovery dispute in good faith, Defendant’s counsel represented to Plaintiffs’ counsel
8 that they would attempt to obtain a list of all citations and/or cases associated with CCC
9 16.13.030 to date to better facilitate Plaintiffs’ discovery and sent requests to the Clark
10 County District Attorney’s Office – Criminal Division and the Las Vegas Township
11 Justice Court in an attempt to obtain the same.

12 A response from Clark County District Attorney’s Office – Criminal Division is 13 still pending, and any documents obtained in response to Clark County’s request will be 14 disclosed upon receipt. The request to Las Vegas Township Justice Court resulted in a 15 list of all citations and cases associated with Nevada Offense Code (“NOC”) 66203 for 16 CCC 16.13.030 (redacted as to personally identifying information/criminal history 17 information).

18 See 66203 NOC Code for CCC 16.13.030, disclosed as CC 3911 to CC 3912, and

20 Information of Non-Parties), disclosed as CC 3913 to CC 3930, in Clark County’s Fourth
21 Supplemental Disclosure and Production of Documents Pursuant to FRCP 26(a)(1).

6 is unduly burdensome, overly broad, and not proportional to the needs of the case. Defendant
7 further objects to the instant Interrogatory because it is not the custodian of records for
8 LVMPD records, which are equally available to both parties. Without waiving the foregoing
9 objections and subject to the same, Defendant answers as follows:

10 Clark County has no records responsive to this request in its possession.

11 See Response to Request No. 1.

12 Defendant reserves the right to supplement this answer as additional information comes 13 to light in the course of discovery.

14 REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 17:

15 ALL DOCUMENTS, including but not limited to declarations of arrest, arrest reports, 16 citations, criminal complaints, or video footage describing, describing or depicting alleged 17 criminal activity or other “disorder” as the term is used in Clark County Code 16.13.010
18 occurring on the PEDESTRIAN BRIDGES.

19 RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 17:

20 Objection. The instant Interrogatory is not reasonably calculated to lead to the 21 discovery of admissible evidence. The instant Interrogatory is further objectionable because it
22 is unduly burdensome, overly broad, and not proportional to the needs of the case. Defendant
23 further objects to the instant Interrogatory because it is not the custodian of records for 24 LVMPD records, which are equally available to both parties. Without waiving the foregoing
25 objections and subject to the same, Defendant answers as follows:

3 REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 18:

4 ALL DOCUMENTS RELATED TO Dr. William Sousa’s report Questions Related to 5 Public Safety on Pedestrian Bridges, CC 132–139, including but not limited to any offers,
6 contracts, payments, drafts, or requests for information related to the report.

7 RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 18:

8 Objection. The instant request for “ALL DOCUMENTS” is overly broad and unduly
9 burdensome. The instant Request is also premature. All expert disclosures will be made in
10 accordance with Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(a)(2)(D). The instant request is further objectionable as Dr.
11 William Sousa was retained in anticipation of the subject litigation and to serve as Defendant
12 Clark County’s testifying expert witness in the same. Accordingly, many of the documents
13 related to Dr. Sousa’s report are protected as qualified attorney work product. See Fed.R.Civ.P.
14 26(b)(4)(C). Furthermore, as communications and documents exchanged between Dr. Sousa
15 and Clark County and its counsel were made to assist Clark County Commissioners and their 16 staff in making legislative recommendations and decisions and the disclosure of such 17 communications would discourage candid discussions within the County and undermine the 18 County’s ability to legislate, they are also protected from disclosure under deliberative process
19 and legislative privileges. Transgender L. Ctr. v. Immigr. & Customs Enf’t, 46 F.4th 771, 783
20 (9th Cir. 2022). Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant
21 answers as follows:

12 REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 19:

14 RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 19:

15 Objection. The instant Request is premature. All expert disclosures will be made in 16 accordance with Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(a)(2)(D). The instant request is further objectionable as Dr.
17 William Sousa was retained in anticipation of the subject litigation and to serve as Defendant
18 Clark County's testifying expert witness in the same. All communications between Dr. Sousa
19 and Defendant Clark County or its counsel, not subject to one of the identified exceptions, are 20 protected as qualified attorney work product. See Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(b)(4)(C). Furthermore, as 21 communications between Dr. Sousa and Clark County and its counsel were made to assist
22 Clark County Commissioners and its staff in making legislative decisions and the disclosure
23 of such communications would discourage candid discussions within the County and 24 undermine the County's ability to legislate, they are also protected from disclosure under 25 deliberative process and legislative privileges. Transgender L. Ctr. v. Immigr. & Customs

14       RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 20:

15           Objection. The instant Request is overly broad and unduly burdensome. The Request 16 is further objectionable as it vague and ambiguous as to time and to the terms: "reports" or

18 County responds as follows:

21 instant Request is further objectionable as it seeks documents demonstrating common sense

24 Objection. The instant Request is overly broad and unduly burdensome—particularly 25 as it pertains to Plaintiffs’ request for “ALL DOCUMENTS [...] RELATED TO”. The instant
26 Request is objectionable to the extent it calls for documents protected under the work product

28 instant Request is further objectionable as it seeks documents that are equally available to both

1 parties. Defendant further objects to the extent the instant Request calls for a legal conclusion.

1 RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 48:

2 Objection. The instant Request is overly broad and unduly burdensome—particularly
3 as it pertains to Plaintiffs’ request for “ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS

8 counsel, which constitute questions of law, will be determined by the Court just as Plaintiffs’
9 assertions to the contrary will and they are not appropriate points of inquiry for discovery.

1 as stated in DEFENDANT Clark County’s Motion to Dismiss Plaintiff’s Complaint, ECF No.

3 RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 49:

4 Objection. The instant Request is overly broad and unduly burdensome—particularly
5 as it pertains to Plaintiffs’ request for “ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS
6 RELATED TO” without the provisions of meaningful time restrictions, search terms or user
7 accounts. The instant Request calls for a legal conclusion based on an argument put forth in 8 response to a motion already resolved by the Court. Ultimately these legal assertions by 9 counsel, which constitute questions of law, will be determined by the Court just as Plaintiffs’
10 assertions to the contrary will and they are not appropriate points of inquiry for discovery.
11 Notably, taking photographs does not constitute stopping or standing. Without waiving the 12 foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant answers as follows:

2 ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO the definition of
3 “disorderly offenses” as used in Clark County Code § 16.13.010.

4 RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 50:

5 Objection. The instant Request is overly broad and unduly burdensome—particularly
6 as it pertains to Plaintiffs’ request for “ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS
7 RELATED TO” without the provisions of meaningful time restrictions, search terms or user
8 accounts. Even if the subject Request were not overly broad the Request is further

13 to the extent it calls for documents protected under the work product privilege or attorney
14 client privilege. The instant Request further calls for a legal conclusion. Without waiving the 15 foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant responds as follows:

20 ALL TRAININGS RELATED TO the implementation and enforcement of Clark
21 County Code § 16.13.030.

22 RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 51:

23 Objection. The instant request is vague and ambiguous, particularly as it pertains to the 24 terms "trainings," "implementation," and "enforcement." Defendant further objects that it is
25 not the entity responsible for the enforcement of Clark County Code § 16.13.030. The instant
26 request is further objectionable as it is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of 27 admissible evidence. Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same,
28 Defendant responds as follows:

1 To the extent the ordinance may be considered a training, see the text of Chapter 16.13
2 to the Clark County Code, disclosed in Defendant Clark County’s Initial Disclosures as bates

6 REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 52:

7 ALL POLICIES RELATED TO the implementation and enforcement of Clark County

9 RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 52:

10 Objection. The instant request is vague and ambiguous, particularly as it pertains to the 11 terms “policies,” “implementation,” and “enforcement.” Defendant further objects that it is
12 not the entity responsible for the enforcement of Clark County Code § 16.13.030. The instant
13 request is further objectionable as it is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of

24 RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 54:

25       Objection. The instant Request is overly broad and unduly burdensome—particularly 26 as it pertains to Plaintiffs’ request for “ALL DOCUMENTS RELATED TO.” Even if the 27 subject Request were not overly broad the Request is further objectionable because it
28 impermissibly seeks to ascertain legislators’ subjective motives or opinions and their

4 for documents protected under the work product privilege or attorney client privilege. The
5 instant Request is not relevant nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible
6 evidence. Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant
7 Responds as follows:

17       Discovery is ongoing and Defendant reserves the right to supplement its response to

19 REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 55:

20       ALL e-mails and ANY other COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO Bill No. 4-19-22-
21 1, first introduced at the April 19, 2022, Clark County Commission meeting.

22 RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 55:

23       The instant Request is overly broad and unduly burdensome—particularly as it pertains
24 to Plaintiffs’ request for “ALL e-mails and ANY other COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO 25 Bill No. 4-19-22-1” without the provisions of meaningful time restrictions, search terms or
26 user accounts. Even if the subject Request were not overly broad the Request is further
27 objectionable because it impermissibly seeks to ascertain legislators’ subjective motives or
28 opinions and their communications with staff protected from disclosure under the deliberative

1 process and legislative privileges in First Amendment challenges such is the instant case. See,
2 e.g., City of Las Vegas v. Foley, 747 F.2d 1294, 1298 (9th Cir. 1984). The instant Request is
3 objectionable as it is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.
4 Communications regarding a completely different proposed ordinance from 2022 are both
5 protected by deliberative process privilege and have no bearing on a determination of the 6 constitutionality of a separate ordinance passed in 2024 which will be determined on the
7 language of the ordinance, the legislative history, and the public comment by any legislators.
8 The instant Request is further objectionable to the extent it calls for documents protected under
9 the work product privilege or attorney client privilege. The instant Request is also not 10 proportional to the needs of the case. Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to 11 the same, Defendant Responds as follows:

12 Defendant declines to respond to the instant Request as the requested communications
13 are privileged and irrelevant and the work required to perform an undefined search of this
14 nature is disproportionate to the needs of the case. To the extent it is responsive see Certified

20 REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 56:

21 ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO written public
22 comment submitted to DEFENDANT referencing Bill No. 4-19-22-1, first introduced at the 23 April 19, 2022, Clark County Commission meeting.

24 RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 56:

25 The instant Request is overly broad and unduly burdensome—particularly as it pertains
26 to Plaintiffs’ request for “ALL e-mails and ANY other COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO 27 Bill No. 4-19-22-1” without the provisions of meaningful time restrictions, search terms or
28 user accounts. Even if the subject Request were not overly broad the Request is further

1 objectionable because it impermissibly seeks to ascertain legislators' subjective motives or

1 RESPONSE REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 57:

2           Objection. The instant request is vague and ambiguous, particularly as it pertains to the
3 terms “trainings” and “enforcement.” Defendant further objects that it is not the entity
4 responsible for the enforcement of Clark County Code § 16.13.030 or Clark County Code §
5 16.11. The instant request is further objectionable as it is not reasonably calculated to lead to
6 the discovery of admissible evidence. Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject
7 to the same, Defendant responds as follows:

8           To the extent the ordinance may be considered a training, see the text of Chapter 16.13
9 to the Clark County Code, disclosed in Defendant Clark County’s Initial Disclosures as bates
10 CC 140 to CC 145; see also Clark County Code § 16.11 available online.

13 REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 58:

14           ALL POLICIES RELATED TO the enforcement of Clark County Code § 16.11.

15 RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 58:

16           Objection. The instant request is vague and ambiguous, particularly as it pertains to the 17 terms “policies” and “enforcement.” Defendant further objects that it is not the entity
18 responsible for the enforcement of Clark County Code § 16.13.030 or Clark County Code §
19 16.11. The instant request is further objectionable as it is not reasonably calculated to lead to 20 the discovery of admissible evidence. Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject
21 to the same, Defendant responds as follows:

22           To the extent the text of the ordinance may be considered a training material, see the
23 text of Chapter 16.13 to the Clark County Code, disclosed in Defendant Clark County’s Initial
24 Disclosures as bates CC 140 to CC 145; see also Clark County Code § 16.11 available online.

1 REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 59:

2 ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO the enforcement of
3 Clark County Code § 16.11, including but not limited to citations, criminal complaints, arrest
4 reports, and arrest declarations.

5 RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 59:

6 Objection. The instant Request is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of 7 admissible evidence. Clark County Code § 16.11 is not at issue in the subject litigation and
8 has already been deemed constitutional on its face by United States District Court for the
9 District of Nevada. See Taylor v. LVMPD, et al., Case No. 2:19-CV-00995. The instant
10 Request is further objectionable because it is unduly burdensome, overly broad, and not
11 proportional to the needs of the case. Defendant further objects to the instant Request because 12 it is not the custodian of records for LVMPD records, which are equally available to both
13 parties. Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant answers
14 as follows:

15 It is upon information and belief that Clark County has no records responsive to this
16 request in its possession.

17 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant reserves the right to supplement its response to

19 REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 60:

20 ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS defining “chronic offender(s),” as 21 stated by Sheriff Kevin McMahill in his interview for the article Police won’t stop photos on 22 Strip bridges under new law, sheriff says with the Las Vegas Review-Journal published on 23 January 17, 2024.

24 RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 60:

25 Objection. The instant Request for Production is vague and ambiguous as written. The 26 instant Request is also not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible
27 evidence as these comments were made post-hac after the subject ordinance had already been
28 enacted. See, e.g., Clift v. City of Burlington, Vt., 925 F. Supp. 2d 614, 637 (D. Vt. 2013);

1 McGuire v. Reilly, 260 F.3d 36, 47 (1st Cir. 2001). Furthermore, as Sheriff Kevin McMahill
2 is an elected official who heads the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, a separate
3 legal entity, and is neither an employee nor official of Clark County, Clark County objects to
4 a Request demanding supporting documents for his statements or the content of articles
5 prepared by third-party media outlets which are equally available to the parties by subpoena
6 or public records request. Plaintiffs' request in this regard is both overly broad, unduly
7 burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case. Without waiving the foregoing
8 objections and subject to the same, Defendant answers as follows:

9 Defendant is not aware of any documents responsive to this Request in its possession.

10 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant reserves the right to supplement its response to

12 REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 61:

13 ALL e-mails and ANY other COMMUNICATIONS between LVMPD and
14 DEFENDANT RELATED TO Clark County Code § 16.13.030.

15 RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 61:

16 Objection. The instant request is overly broad and unduly burdensome particularly as 17 it pertains to "ALL e-mails and ANY other COMMUNICATIONS between LVMPD and 18 DEFENDANT RELATED TO Clark County Code § 16.13.030." Without the provisions of 19 meaningful time restrictions, search terms or user accounts. Even if the subject Request were 20 not overly broad the Request is further objectionable because it impermissibly seeks to 21 ascertain legislators' subjective motives or opinions and their communications with staff
22 protected under the deliberative process and legislative privileges in First Amendment
23 challenges such is the instant case. See, e.g., City of Las Vegas v. Foley, 747 F.2d 1294, 1298
24 (9th Cir. 1984). The instant Request is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of 25 admissible evidence, and not proportional to the needs of this case. The instant request is also
26 vague and ambiguous to time and provides no meaningful parameters for performing a search
27 of this nature. In facial challenges such as the one at issue in this case, the Court may "only 28 look to [the ordinance's] terms, to the intent expressed by [the legislative body] who voted its

1 passage, and to the existence or nonexistence of legitimate explanations for its apparent
2 effect.” Nixon v. Adm’r of Gen. Servs., 433 U.S. 425, 484, 97 S. Ct. 2777, 2811, 53 L. Ed. 2d
3 867 (1977) (emphasis added); see also SeaRiver Mar. Fin. Holdings, Inc. v. Mineta, 309 F.3d
4 662, 669 (9th Cir. 2002). The Court must take a legislative body’s findings at face value and
5 may not “look beyond the face of the [ordinance] and speculate about the [legislative body’s]
6 subjective intent” based on post-hac or non-public communications of staff. See, e.g., Clift v.
7 City of Burlington, Vt., 925 F. Supp. 2d 614, 637 (D. Vt. 2013); McGuire v. Reilly, 260 F.3d
8 36, 47 (1st Cir. 2001).

9 Furthermore, communications between LVMPD and Clark County and its employees,
10 officers, and staff regarding Clark County Code are protected under the deliberative process
11 privilege and are not admissible or discoverable in facial challenges. See United States Fish &

14 Clark County answers as follows:

5 RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 62:

6       Objection. The instant request is overly broad and unduly burdensome particularly as
7 it pertains to “ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS including ANY of the 8 following keywords” without the provisions of meaningful time restrictions, search
9 parameters or user accounts. Even if the subject Request were not overly broad the Request is
10 further objectionable because it impermissibly seeks to ascertain legislators’ subjective
11 motives or opinions and their communications with staff protected under the deliberative
12 process and legislative privileges in First Amendment challenges such is the instant case. See,
13 e.g., City of Las Vegas v. Foley, 747 F.2d 1294, 1298 (9th Cir. 1984). The instant Request is 14 not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, and not proportional
15 to the needs of this case. In facial challenges such as the one at issue in this case, the Court
16 may “only look to [the ordinance’s] terms, to the intent expressed by [the legislative body] 17 who voted its passage, and to the existence or nonexistence of legitimate explanations for its 18 apparent effect.” Nixon v. Adm’r of Gen. Servs., 433 U.S. 425, 484, 97 S. Ct. 2777, 2811, 53

20 309 F.3d 662, 669 (9th Cir. 2002). The Court must take a legislative body’s findings at face
21 value and may not “look beyond the face of the [ordinance] and speculate about the [legislative 22 body’s] subjective intent” based on post-hac or non-public communications of staff. See, e.g.,

11 REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 68:

12 ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO ANY and ALL
13 statistics collected by DEFENDANT or ANY law enforcement agency RELATED TO Clark
14 County Code § 16.13.030.

15 RESPONSE REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 68:

16 Objection. The instant request is overly broad and unduly burdensome particularly as 17 it pertains to "ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO ANY and 18 ALL statistics" without the provisions of meaningful time restrictions, search parameters or
19 user accounts. Even if the subject Request were not overly broad, the Request is further
20 objectionable because it impermissibly seeks to ascertain legislators' subjective motives or 21 opinions and their communications with staff protected under the deliberative process and
22 legislative privileges in First Amendment challenges such is the instant case. See, e.g., City of
23 Las Vegas v. Foley, 747 F.2d 1294, 1298 (9th Cir. 1984). The instant Request is not reasonably
24 calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, and not proportional to the needs
25 of this case. In facial challenges such as the one at issue in this case, the Court may "only look 26 to [the ordinance's] terms, to the intent expressed by [the legislative body] who voted its
27 passage, and to the existence or nonexistence of legitimate explanations for its apparent
28 effect." Nixon v. Adm'r of Gen. Servs., 433 U.S. 425, 484, 97 S. Ct. 2777, 2811, 53 L. Ed. 2d

2 662, 669 (9th Cir. 2002). The Court must take a legislative body’s findings at face value and
3 may not “look beyond the face of the [ordinance] and speculate about the [legislative body’s]
4 subjective intent” based on post-hac or non-public communications of staff. See, e.g., Clift v.

6 36, 47 (1st Cir. 2001). Defendant further objects that it is a separate and distinct legal entity
7 from Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department and is not responsible for the enforcement
8 of laws in Clark County and is not the custodian of records for statistics or data related to Clark
9 County Code § 16.13.030. Defendant further objects to the extent that the subject Request
10 requires the creation of documents by Defendant from data that is equally available to both 11 parties.

12 Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant Clark
13 County answers as follows:

20 Pursuant to FRCP 26(a)(1).

21 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant reserves the right to supplement its response to

24 ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO ANY and ALL
25 statistics collected by DEFENDANT or ANY law enforcement agency RELATED TO Clark
26 County Code § 16.11.

27 ///

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 69:

Objection. The instant request is overly broad and unduly burdensome particularly as it pertains to “ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO ANY and ALL statistics” without the provisions of meaningful time restrictions, search parameters or user accounts. Even if the subject Request were not overly broad, the Request is further objectionable because it impermissibly seeks to ascertain legislators’ subjective motives or opinions and their communications with staff protected under the deliberative process and legislative privileges in First Amendment challenges such is the instant case. See, e.g., City of Las Vegas v. Foley, 747 F.2d 1294, 1298 (9th Cir. 1984). The instant Request is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, and not proportional to the needs of this case. In facial challenges such as the one at issue in this case, the Court may “only look to [the ordinance’s] terms, to the intent expressed by [the legislative body] who voted its passage, and to the existence or nonexistence of legitimate explanations for its apparent effect.” Nixon v. Adm’r of Gen. Servs., 433 U.S. 425, 484, 97 S. Ct. 2777, 2811, 53 L. Ed. 2d 867 (1977) (emphasis added); see also SeaRiver Mar. Fin. Holdings, Inc. v. Mineta, 309 F.3d 662, 669 (9th Cir. 2002). The Court must take a legislative body’s findings at face value and may not “look beyond the face of the [ordinance] and speculate about the [legislative body’s] subjective intent” based on post-hac or non-public communications of staff. See, e.g., Clift v. City of Burlington, Vt., 925 F. Supp. 2d 614, 637 (D. Vt. 2013); McGuire v. Reilly, 260 F.3d 36, 47 (1st Cir. 2001). Defendant further objects that it is a separate and distinct legal entity from Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department and is not responsible for the enforcement of laws in Clark County and is not the custodian of records for statistics or data related to Clark County Code § 16.11. Defendant further objects to the extent that the subject Request requires the creation of documents by Defendant from data that is equally available to both parties.

Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant Clark County answers as follows:

It is upon information and belief that Defendant is not in possession of any documents responsive to this request.

1 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant reserves the right to supplement its response to
2 the instant request as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

3 REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 70:

4 ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS that define “disorderly offenses” in
5 the RESORT CORRIDOR, as used in Clark County Code § 16.13.010.

6 RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 70:

7 Objection. The instant request is overly broad and unduly burdensome particularly as
8 it pertains to “ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS” without the provisions of 9 meaningful time restrictions, search parameters or user accounts. Even if the subject Request
10 were not overly broad, the Request is further objectionable because it impermissibly seeks to 11 ascertain legislators’ subjective motives or opinions and their communications with staff
12 protected under the deliberative process and legislative privileges in First Amendment
13 challenges such is the instant case. See, e.g., City of Las Vegas v. Foley, 747 F.2d 1294, 1298
14 (9th Cir. 1984). The instant Request is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of 15 admissible evidence, and not proportional to the needs of this case. In facial challenges such 16 as the one at issue in this case, the Court may “only look to [the ordinance’s] terms, to the 17 intent expressed by [the legislative body] who voted its passage, and to the existence or 18 nonexistence of legitimate explanations for its apparent effect.” Nixon v. Adm’r of Gen. Servs., 19 433 U.S. 425, 484, 97 S. Ct. 2777, 2811, 53 L. Ed. 2d 867 (1977) (emphasis added); see also
20 SeaRiver Mar. Fin. Holdings, Inc. v. Mineta, 309 F.3d 662, 669 (9th Cir. 2002). The Court
21 must take a legislative body’s findings at face value and may not “look beyond the face of the 22 [ordinance] and speculate about the [legislative body’s] subjective intent” based on post-hac
23 or non-public communications of staff. See, e.g., Clift v. City of Burlington, Vt., 925 F. Supp.
24 2d 614, 637 (D. Vt. 2013); McGuire v. Reilly, 260 F.3d 36, 47 (1st Cir. 2001). Defendant
25 further objects that the instant Request calls for a legal conclusion and for Clark County to 26 provide supporting documentation regarding the definition or plain meaning of common
27 words.

24 "disorderly offenses" in the RESORT CORRIDOR, as used in Clark County Code §

26 RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 71:

27 Objection. The instant request is overly broad and unduly burdensome particularly as
28 it pertains to "ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO service calls

18 that it is a separate and distinct legal entity from Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department
19 and is not responsible for the enforcement of laws in Clark County and is not the custodian of 20 records for statistics or data related to the same. Accordingly, the data sought by the instant

RESPONSE REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 73:

Objection. The instant request is overly broad and unduly burdensome particularly as it pertains to “ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO data” without the provisions of meaningful time restrictions or search parameters. Defendant further objects that it is a separate and distinct legal entity from Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department and is not responsible for the enforcement of laws in Clark County and is not the custodian of records for citations, arrest reports, and arrest declarations.

3 RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 77:

4 Objection. The instant request is facially overbroad. Requests for any and all documents
5 and communications without reasonable time and scope parameters are facially overbroad.
6 See, e.g., LLC v. Spain, No. 3:19-cv-02280-CAB-KSC, 2020 WL 6741675, at * 3 (S.D. Cal.

11 if the subject Request were not overly broad, the Request is further objectionable because it
12 impermissibly seeks to ascertain legislators’ subjective motives or opinions and their
13 communications with staff protected under the deliberative process and legislative privileges
14 in First Amendment challenges such is the instant case. See, e.g., City of Las Vegas v. Foley,
15 747 F.2d 1294, 1298 (9th Cir. 1984). The instant Request is not reasonably calculated to lead
16 to the discovery of admissible evidence, and not proportional to the needs of this case. In facial
17 challenges such as the one at issue in this case, the Court may “only look to [the ordinance’s]
18 terms, to the intent expressed by [the legislative body] who voted its passage, and to the 19 existence or nonexistence of legitimate explanations for its apparent effect.” Nixon v. Adm'r

21 added); see also SeaRiver Mar. Fin. Holdings, Inc. v. Mineta, 309 F.3d 662, 669 (9th Cir.

23 beyond the face of the [ordinance] and speculate about the [legislative body’s] subjective
24 intent” based on post-hac or non-public communications of staff. See, e.g., Clift v. City of

26 Supplemental Disclosure and Production of Documents Pursuant to FRCP 26(a)(1).

27           Discovery is ongoing and Defendant reserves the right to supplement its response to

1 REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 78:

2 ALL DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO First Amendment
3 activities, including but not limited to solicitation, panhandling, protesting, expressive
4 conduct, musical performances, street performing, busking, tabling, amplified sound,

6 RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 78:

7 Objection. The instant request is facially overbroad. Requests for any and all documents
8 and communications without reasonable time and scope parameters are facially overbroad.
9 See, e.g., LLC v. Spain, No. 3:19-cv-02280-CAB-KSC, 2020 WL 6741675, at * 3 (S.D. Cal.
10 Nov. 17, 2020) (“As a rule, requests for ‘any and all’ documents or communications (or 11 testimony about those materials) are facially overbroad.”); Painters Joint Comm. v. Emp.
12 Painters Trust Health & Welfare Fund, No. 2:10-cv-01385-JCM-PAL, 2011 WL 4549232, at
13 *2 (D. Nev. Sept. 29, 2011); Guillen v. B.J.C.R. LLC, 341 F.R.D. 61, 71 (D. Nev. 2022). Even
14 if the subject Request were not overly broad, the Request is further objectionable because it
15 impermissibly seeks to ascertain legislators’ subjective motives or opinions and their
16 communications with staff protected under the deliberative process and legislative privileges
17 in First Amendment challenges such is the instant case. See, e.g., City of Las Vegas v. Foley,
18 747 F.2d 1294, 1298 (9th Cir. 1984). The instant Request is not reasonably calculated to lead
19 to the discovery of admissible evidence, and not proportional to the needs of this case. In facial
20 challenges such as the one at issue in this case, the Court may “only look to [the ordinance’s]
21 terms, to the intent expressed by [the legislative body] who voted its passage, and to the 22 existence or nonexistence of legitimate explanations for its apparent effect.” Nixon v. Adm’r
23 of Gen. Servs., 433 U.S. 425, 484, 97 S. Ct. 2777, 2811, 53 L. Ed. 2d 867 (1977) (emphasis
24 added); see also SeaRiver Mar. Fin. Holdings, Inc. v. Mineta, 309 F.3d 662, 669 (9th Cir.
25 2002). The Court must take a legislative body’s findings at face value and may not “look
26 beyond the face of the [ordinance] and speculate about the [legislative body’s] subjective
27 intent” based on post-hac or non-public communications of staff. See, e.g., Clift v. City of 28

1 Burlington, Vt., 925 F. Supp. 2d 614, 637 (D. Vt. 2013); McGuire v. Reilly, 260 F.3d 36, 47
2 (1st Cir. 2001).

3 Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same, Defendant Clark
4 County answers as follows:

5 See Letter dated December 4, 2023, from Nevada Resort Association to the Board of
6 County Commissioners, disclosed as bates CC 127 to CC 131 in DEFENDANT CLARK

3 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant reserves the right to supplement its response to the instant
4 request as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

5 REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 79:

6 ALL DOCUMENTS RELATED TO the legislative history of Clark County Code §
7 16.13.030.

8 RESPONSE REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 79:

9 Objection. The instant interrogatory is vague and ambiguous as it pertains to the term
10 "legislative history." Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject to the same,
11 Defendant responds as follows:

12 See Certified copy of documentation regarding Board of County Commissioners
13 Meeting, November 21, 2023, item number 68 with audio and video; Certified copy of 14 documentation regarding Board of County Commissioners Meeting, December 5, 2023, item

18 County Code approved, January 2, 2024, to add Chapter 16.13, disclosed as bates CC 001 to

20 FRCP 26(a)(1); see also Unofficial Transcript of Board of County Commissioners Meeting,

23 DOCUMENTS PER FRCP 26(a)(1); see also Certified copy of minutes for Board of

25 to CC 4029, in Clark County's Fourth Supplemental Disclosure and Production of 26 Documents Pursuant to FRCP 26(a)(1).

27 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant Clark County reserves the right to supplement the

1 REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 80:

2 DOCUMENTS upon which DEFENDANT intends to rely to support ANY denials in
3 ANY responses to PLAINTIFFS' allegations and/or affirmative defenses asserted against
4 DEFENDANT in this action.

5 RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 80:

6 Objection. The instant Request calls for a legal conclusion and impermissibly seeks
7 disclosure of Defendant's legal strategy. Without waiving the foregoing objections and subject
8 to the same, Defendant responds as follows:

9 See DEFENDANT CLARK COUNTY'S INITIAL DISCLOSURE AND 10 PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS PER FRCP 26(a)(1) AND ALL SUPPLEMENTS
11 THERETO.

12 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant Clark County reserves the right to supplement the 13 instant Request as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

14 REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 81:

15 The Curriculum Vitae or resume for the following individuals:

- 16 • Clint Spencer, Clark County Department of Public Works, Road Division
18 • William H. Sousa.

19 RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 81:

20 Objection. The instant Request is premature. Defendant Clark County will disclose
21 experts in this matter, if any, in accordance with the deadlines provided in the Discovery Plan
22 and Scheduling Order in this matter. Defendant further objects to the extent that the instant
23 Request is unduly burdensome and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of 24 admissible evidence. Facial challenges do not involve attacking the qualifications of County 25 staff to rehash the policy debate underlying legislation in the courts and, accordingly, the 26 documents Plaintiffs seek in the instant Request are not relevant to the instant litigation.
27 Defendant further objects to the extent the instant Request calls for the creation of documents
28

1 not in existence and/or not in the possession of Clark County. Without waiving the foregoing
2 objections and subject to the same, Defendant responds as follows:

3 Defendant Clark County will disclose the curriculum vitae or resume for its designated
4 experts in accordance with the deadlines provided in the Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order
5 in this matter.

6 Discovery is ongoing and Defendant Clark County reserves the right to supplement the 7 instant Response as additional information becomes available in the course of discovery.

8 REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 82:

9 ALL DOCUMENTS containing the thoughts, impressions, opinions, speculations,
10 observations, or ANY statements held or made by the following individuals RELATED to the
11 PEDESTRIAN BRIDGES, including but not limited to ANY COMMUNICATIONS, final
12 reports, draft reports, requests for information, or memoranda:

- 13 • Clint Spencer, Clark County Department of Public Works, Road Division
15 • William H. Sousa.

16 RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 82:

17 Objection. The instant Request is vague as to time and ambiguous, particularly as it
18 pertains to the terms: “thoughts, impressions, opinions, speculations, observations.”
19 The instant Request is also unduly burdensome, overly broad particularly as it calls for the 20 disclosure for “ALL DOCUMENTS” without provisions of any meaningful time constraints,
21 parameters or personally identifying search terms. It is not reasonably calculated to lead to the
22 discovery of admissible evidence. Requests for any and all documents without reasonable time
23 and scope parameters are facially overbroad. See, e.g., LLC v. Spain, No. 3:19-cv-02280-CAB-
24 KSC, 2020 WL 6741675, at * 3 (S.D. Cal. Nov. 17, 2020) (“As a rule, requests for ‘any and
25 all’ documents or communications (or testimony about those materials) are facially
26 overbroad.”); Painters Joint Comm. v. Emp. Painters Trust Health & Welfare Fund, No. 2:10-
27 cv-01385-JCM-PAL, 2011 WL 4549232, at *2 (D. Nev. Sept. 29, 2011); Guillen v. B.J.C.R.
28 LLC, 341 F.R.D. 61, 71 (D. Nev. 2022). Defendant further objects to the extent the instant

2 United States Fish & Wildlife Serv. v. Sierra Club, Inc., 592 U.S. 261, 267–68, 141 S. Ct. 777,
3 785–86, 209 L. Ed. 2d 78 (2021); Soucie v. David, 448 F.2d 1067, 1077–78 (D.C.Cir.1971);
4 National Wildlife Federation v. U.S. Forest Service, 861 F.2d 1114, 1118–19 (9th Cir.1988).
5 The instant Request is also premature. All expert disclosures will be made in accordance with
6 Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(a)(2)(D). The instant request is further objectionable as Dr. William Sousa
7 was retained in anticipation of the subject litigation and to serve as Defendant Clark County’s
8 testifying expert witness in the same. All communications between Dr. Sousa and Defendant
9 Clark County or its counsel, not subject to one of the identified exceptions, are protected as
10 qualified attorney work product. See Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(b)(4)(C). Without waiving the foregoing
11 objections and subject to the same, Defendant responds as follows:

12           Defendant cannot reasonably respond to the instant request as worded. To the 13 extent it is responsive, See redacted e-mail communications between Clark County and Dr.
14 William Sousa and the associated privilege log, disclosed in Defendant’s First Supplemental 15 Disclosures as bates CC 146-CC 252; see also Certified copy of documentation regarding

Clark County Code Chapter 16.13

Chapter 16.13 - PEDESTRIAN FLOW ZONES

Sections:

16.13.010 - Purpose.

The pedestrian bridges located within the world-famous Las Vegas Strip provide above grade access for the visitors, employees, and residents of Clark County to safely cross the roadways located within the Las Vegas Strip. The pedestrian bridges are part of the sidewalk system of the Las Vegas Strip and were created for the purpose of separating pedestrian traffic from vehicular traffic to facilitate pedestrians crossing in those locations. Pedestrians are prohibited from crossing at grade level where pedestrian bridges are located. The pedestrian bridges were designed for the specific purpose of facilitating such crossings at all foreseeable levels of demand which can vary significantly and unpredictably regardless of day or time of day. The parameters for the pedestrian bridge design did not include uses beyond pedestrian traffic crossing from one side to the other side. The parameters included that pedestrians would not stop, stand or congregate other than for incidental and fleeting viewing of the Las Vegas Strip from the pedestrian bridge. For pedestrians to be able to stop, stand or congregate for any other reason, the pedestrian bridges would have been designed differently to account for such uses.

Stopping on the pedestrian bridges creates conditions that can foment disorder which, in turn, can lead to crime and serious safety issues. Because pedestrian traffic demand on the bridges varies significantly and unpredictably regardless of day or time of day, it is impossible to know in advance when stopping will result in criminal or otherwise dangerous conditions (whether involving the particular pedestrian who has stopped or others) and because of the physical nature of the pedestrian bridges, by the time such conditions exist, it would often be too late for law enforcement or other first responders to intervene, mitigate, render aid, rescue, or take other actions necessary as a result of crime and other serious safety issues. In recent years, numerous incidents have occurred that underscore these concerns. There is an ever-increasing demand as visitation numbers have reached near historical levels. Clark County continues to attract major sporting events and has become the home to major sports teams. Clark County has a substantial government interest in providing safe pedestrian access on the Las Vegas Strip. The increased number and frequency of high-profile attacks in places of public gatherings throughout the country have contributed to the occurrence of threats and perceived threats that result in public panic and immediate and unexpected demand on pedestrian bridges as in an event of flight by large groups of people.

From 2018 to 2022, calls for law enforcement services on the Las Vegas Strip have increased twenty-nine percent from thirty-seven thousand five hundred ninety-eight in 2018 to forty-eight thousand three hundred fifty-eight in 2022. The service calls for disorderly offenses increased twenty-three percent from six thousand nine hundred eighty-one in 2018 to eight thousand seven hundred fifty in 2022. While the pedestrian bridges constitute only approximately six percent of the total linear feet of public sidewalks available to pedestrians, the service calls for disorderly conduct on the pedestrian bridge are almost twice as high. In addition to the disproportionate call volume on pedestrian bridges, the pedestrian bridges create a unique opportunity for criminal disorder as the bridges create a captive audience. Generally, in order for a pedestrian to cross Las Vegas Boulevard the pedestrian must use the bridge, therefore, unlike on a sidewalk where a pedestrian has a greater ability to avoid disorder, on the pedestrian bridge, the pedestrian is confined to the restricted space of the pedestrian bridge.

The board has a substantial government interest in ensuring public safety on the pedestrian bridges. The board finds that adoption of pedestrian flow zones is a narrowly tailored means to accomplish the county's important objective of reducing the incidence and risk of crime and serious safety issues on pedestrian bridges and allows pedestrians to freely and safely get to their desired location. The pedestrian bridges represent only six percent of the total linear feet of the public sidewalk available to pedestrians within the Las Vegas Strip, to the extent the pedestrian flow zones have some incidental impact on the manner of First Amendment activity, (people must continue to move, whether engaged in First Amendment activity or not), there is ample alternative means of communication on the other approximately ninety-four percent of the sidewalks located within the Las Vegas Strip. Therefore, for the reasons described herein, the board hereby adopts the following ordinance.

(Ord. No. 5090, § 1, 1-2-2024)

new

"Pedestrian bridges" are bridges located in the resort corridor that allow pedestrians to cross streets in the resort corridor above grade level. For the purposes of this chapter, "pedestrian bridges" shall include bridges for pedestrians in the resort corridor that are private property upon which a limited easement of public access has been granted. However, no provision of this chapter shall be construed to limit any right of the private property owner to restrict or limit the use of that private property.

"Pedestrian flow zones" include the pedestrian bridges and up to twenty feet surrounding a touchdown structure located within the resort corridor.

"Resort corridor" includes the boundaries established by Sections 9, 10, 15, 16, 17, 18, 20, 21, 22, 27, 28 and 29 of Township 21 South Range 61 East, Mount Diablo Meridian, Clark County, Nevada.

"Touchdown structure" means the elevators, escalators and stairways located on the public right-of-way associated with pedestrian bridges.

(Ord. No. 5090, § 1, 1-2-2024)

new

To maintain the safe and continuous movement of pedestrian traffic, it is unlawful for any person to (1) stop or stand within any pedestrian flow zone, or (2) engage in any activity while within a pedestrian flow zone with the intent of causing another person who is within a pedestrian flow zone to stop or stand. A person is not in violation of this section if they stop or stand while waiting for access to an elevator or escalator for purposes of entering or exiting a pedestrian flow zone.

(Ord. No. 5090, § 1, 1-2-2024)

16.13.040 - Designation of pedestrian flow zones.

new

The county shall place signs in pedestrian flow zones providing notice to the public they are in a pedestrian flow zone and that stopping, standing, or engaging in an activity that causes another person to stop within the pedestrian flow zone is not permitted.

(Ord. No. 5090, § 1, 1-2-2024)

new

Any person who violates any of the provisions of this chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not to exceed six months or by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Exhibit A – Scope of Agreement

“Review, study, analysis and report on the risks associated with the pedestrian overpasses and solutions for mitigation of those risks”

Dr. Sousa will review, study, analyze and provide a report on the current risks the pedestrian overpasses pose to the traveling public and how can those risks be mitigated. Dr. Sousa’s analysis will include the following subject matter and areas of concern:

1. What is the focus of Dr. Sousa’s research projects and how do they relate to the pedestrian overpasses?
2. What does disorder mean with respect to Dr. Sousa’s expertise and areas of research and study? What is the relationship between disorder and crime and other safety issues? Explain disorder and how it creates conditions of public safety and/or crime.
3. When considering the pedestrian overpasses as part of Las Vegas Boulevard South / Resort District sidewalk system, are there disorder or safety issues that are unique or more significant to the bridges separate from the at-grade sidewalks? If so, what are the issues unique to the bridges that are not issues on the at-grade sidewalks?
4. With respect to the pedestrian overpasses, are there issues of egress in times of panic and increased risk of injury?
5. Are these issues that are unique or more significant to bridges exasperated by those who congregate or stop on bridges, regardless of whether the people who stop or congregate are engaging in wrongful conduct themselves?
6. What actions can be taken to reduce disorder and improve public safety on the pedestrian bridges and how and why would they do so?
7. Assuming one such action is to prevent the stoppage or congregating of all persons, how does that action decrease risk to the public? To be effective does it need to include everyone, including those who stop or congregates and are not engaging in bad behavior?
8. Why is a prohibition on obstruction insufficient to resolve the issues on the bridges?
