

HOW TO PREPARE IN CASE YOUR FAMILY IS SEPARATED

1 Make copies of identification documents to protect your family.

- Passports for any U.S. born children
- Birth Certificates
- Marriage Licenses
- Alien Identification Number

2 Make copies of other important documents that can be retrieved by family or an emergency contact.

- Immigration History
- Financial Information
- Criminal History

3 Designate someone with the Power of Attorney to make financial, legal and childcare decisions.

4 Update emergency contact at children's schools with secondary contact info.

5 Register children as citizens of your country of origin at that country's consulate.

6 Carry the telephone number of an immigration lawyer or nonprofit immigration legal service provider to call in case of an emergency.

7 If possible, consult with an immigration attorney to assess your individualized situation and to determine any other steps you can take.
