VOTER ID
Do I have to show my ID?
Probably not. Most voters will not need to show ID at all. You only need to show ID if:
- This is your first-time voting in a federal election in Nevada;
- You registered to vote by mail or online; AND
- You did not provide your social security or drivers’ license numbers when you registered or an election official was unable to match your information with existing records.

What are the accepted forms of ID?
Accepted forms of ID include: current and valid Nevada Driver’s License, Nevada ID card, utility bill, bank statement, paycheck or other document issued by a government entity with your name and residential address.

What if I do not have any ID?
You can cast a provisional ballot, but that ballot will not be counted unless you bring ID to your county clerk by 5 p.m. on Friday, November 9.

PROBLEMS AT THE POLLS
What if I am not on the voter list?
Ask a poll worker to check the list again and to confirm you are at the right polling place. Show your registration card or sample ballot if you have it or offer to spell your name.

If you are at the right polling place but your name is not on the voter list, ask for a provisional ballot. You have the right to cast a provisional ballot even if your name is not on the voter list, as long as you swear that you believe you are registered to vote.

What if I go to the wrong polling place?
In Clark County this will not be an issue because you can vote at any of the 172 voting centers. Washoe County is also equipped to allow persons to vote at any polling location.

For all other counties, ask a poll worker to help you find the polling place where you are registered so you can go to the right polling place. You can also call your county clerk or look up your polling place online.

If you still cannot figure out where you are registered, ask for a provisional ballot. You have the right to cast a provisional ballot even if you are not at the right polling place, but provisional ballots only cover federal offices.

What if someone challenges my right to vote?
If someone claims that you aren’t who you say you are or that you don’t live at your address on the voter list, ask for an affidavit to sign in order to prove your identity or your place of residence. For challenges to your identity, you should show your photo ID or bring someone over 18 who has photo ID and will sign an affidavit swearing that they know who you are. For challenges to your place of residence, show an ID other than your voter registration card that has your residence on it. You have the right to cast a regular ballot if you provide this evidence.

However, if you refuse to sign an affidavit or election officials determined that you don’t live at the address that the registrar has on file for you, you must be allowed to vote at the special polling place that your county clerk is required to set up for challenged voters.

What if someone tries to intimidate or harass me?
Tell a poll worker. If a poll worker is the problem, tell a poll watcher, call your county clerk or the Election Protection Hotline, 866-OUR-VOTE / 888-VE-Y-VOTA.

What if I make a mistake on my ballot or the voting machine malfunctions?
Tell a poll worker before you cast your vote. Your voting machine malfunctions, you have the right to correct any errors and should request a different machine.

How do I make a complaint?
First, ask for the chairman of the election board at your polling place; they can handle most routine complaints that arise on Election Day. Candidates, political parties, and nonprofit groups may also have poll watchers at your polling place who might be able to assist you. If any of those people ask you who you voted for, or if they cannot resolve your complaint, call your county clerk or the Nevada Secretary of State.

You can also call the Election Protection Hotline, 866-OUR-VOTE / 888-VE-Y-VOTA.
WHO CAN VOTE

Can I vote in Nevada?
You can vote in the election if you register to vote before the registration deadlines and meet the following qualifications:

• You are 18 years of age or older;
• You are a U.S. Citizen;
• You will have been a resident of Nevada for 30 days before the election;
• You haven’t been convicted of certain felonies, unless your civil rights have been restored; AND
You haven’t been declared by a court to be mentally incompetent, unless you’ve had your legal capacity restored.

What if I’m a student?
You can register to vote at your school address or your home address, whichever you consider your primary legal residence.

What if I’ve been convicted of a crime?
Detailed information about voting with a criminal conviction is available on the ACLU of Nevada’s website, www.acluv.org.

What if I’m homeless?
You don’t need a home to register, but you must identify a place of residence, which can be a street corner, a park, a shelter, or any other place where you reside. If the place you are staying does not have a street address or you don’t stay in the same place, you can still register. You must identify the place where you usually stay, which could be a street corner, park, or shelter. You should also provide an address, which may be of a local shelter, advocacy organization, outreach center, or anywhere else willing to accept mail on your behalf.

REGISTRATION

How do I register?
You can register to vote:

• In-person at your local county clerk’s office;
• By mailing a voter registration form to your local county clerk or the Nevada Secretary of State Elections Division; or
• When you apply for services at the Department of Motor Vehicles and state agencies that provide public assistance (such as Medicaid, WIC, and food stamps) or services to people with disabilities.

You can get voter registration forms from your local county clerk, most libraries, post offices, colleges and high schools, or at the Secretary of State’s website. You may also be able to register at many other state and federal offices and agencies.

Voting on Election Day
When is Election Day?
Tuesday, November 6, 2018

When are the polls open?
Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. You have the right to vote if you’re in line or inside your polling place when the polls close.

Can I get time off from work to vote?
Maybe. If your work schedule would make it practically impossible for you to vote in-person while the polls are open, your employer is required to give you time off to vote, without penalty or deduction in your wages. You should ask your employer for time off before Election Day. Your employer has the right to specify which hours you get to take.

Where do I vote?
Those voting in Clark County on Election Day, may vote at ANY of the 172 Election Day voting centers. Check your sample ballot or the Clark County Registrar’s webpage for a list of voting centers near you.

Those voting in Washoe County may vote at any polling location on election day, however the Washoe County Voter Registrar encourages voters to cast their ballot at their designated precinct, as looking up your record may cause slight delays. But don’t let ability to make it to your polling location stop you from voting somewhere on Election Day.

For all other counties, you must vote at your assigned polling place. Your assigned polling place will be on your sample ballot and on the voter registration card that you should receive by mail after you register. You can also look up your polling place online.

If you do not have your card, did not receive a sample ballot, or do not have Internet access, call your county clerk to find your polling place.

absentee ballot?
You can surrender your absentee ballot at the polls and vote a regular ballot. If you do not bring your absentee ballot, you have to show ID and sign a statement saying that you have not voted yet in this election.
